ITS DEVELOPMENT.

days of the pioneer are over and that political institutions are everywhere established. This is true in only one sense, for the West is a state of mind, an attitude towards life. We stand today on the frontier of political progress and the need of political pioneers is more pressing than ever. Let us continue the work of the pioneers by fighting our battle for civic righteousness to as successful a termination as they did their contest with the wilderness.

Delinquent Students.

The committee on delinquent students wishes to call attention to Rule 22 of the Student's Handbook. Rule 22—A student who, in any semester, is not satisfactorily carrying at least twelve (12) hours is debarred from representing the University that semester on any athletic or debate team or board, on a glee, mandolin, or dramatic club, on the staff of any college publication or on any other University organization; moreover a student who fails to pass in twelve (12) hours at the end of a semester is debarred from representing the University in any capacity the semester following. In case a student in any of the above named enterprises fails, any semester, to carry satisfactorily the work or any part thereof for which he is registered, the committee on delinquent students may, at its discretion lessen the hours of such student's registration.

Copies of the "Rules and Regulations Governing Students" may be had at the Registrar's office.
