

Sets of Shakespeare Sold on a Convenient Club Plan

We have arranged with the publishers for a large number of handy volume sets of Shakespeare, so that we can sell them to you in a way that will make them easy to buy, and at the same time we will make you a present of nine volumes after you have paid for only thirty. It is an interesting scheme, and will certainly prove most attractive to those desiring to own a set of Shakespeare. These little volumes are bound in red English cloth, with gold titles, half tone front piece, monotint title pages.

PRICE BY THE CLUB 15c A VOLUME

By becoming a member of the club you pay 15c for your first and subsequent volumes as you wish them, taking one or more at a time, until you have bot thirty volumes; then we give the remaining nine vols. free. There is one condition—you must pay for the thirty volumes before May 31, 1908, or forfeit

H. Herpolsheimer & Co.

your membership right to the nine volumes which we present free.

TONIGHT.

Palladian Hall Will Be Dedicated at the Temple.

One of the first events to take place in the University Temple will be the dedication of Palladian Hall, which is set for November 8. The society has issued letters of invitation to all alumni and associate members whose addresses were known, and expects a large attendance. The new hall will be beautifully furnished and will be used for a part of the program. The special feature of the evening will be a banquet, which will be held in the original Palladian hall, the one used by the society thirty years ago. After this leave-taking the guests will return to the Temple and will then see that the Palladian spirit is properly planted in the new soil. All former Palladians are urged to attend and to communicate with the secretary of the committee, Miss Flora Bullock, Station A, Lincoln.

MORE SONGS.

Manager Eager Makes Another Offer of a Prize.

Another song contest is on. Man-ager has announced that he will give two reserved seats for the Denver game for the best song written for that game. Several songs have already been received by Manager Eager.

Palladian Reception.

Friday afternoon, November 8, 1907, at their new home in the Temple, be-tween 4 and 6, the Palladian Literary Society will hold a reception to the faculty and students of the University of Nebraska.

At 6:30 they will have their ban-quet in the old home, to which only members are invited.

After the banquet they will leave the old hall and have the dedicatory program of the new home.

The student council of the Universi-ty of Michigan has made an agree-ment with the chief of police to the effect that the council will constitute a court of inquiry to try students charged with minor offenses, and will mete out such punishment as the coun-cilmen deem the case warrants. Pres-ident Angell has said that he would stand by the decision of the council and aid it in enforcing its decisions even to the extent of expelling a man from college.

Doctor Howard of the University and Mr. Powell of the state railroad commission addressed the debating squad yesterday. It is probable that the preliminaries will be held Satur-day.

Senior Play.

The Senior Play Committee will meet in U. 207 at 1 o'clock Friday afternoon. Full attendance is desired.

Louis A. Hewitt, 1904, Columbia, 1907, is practicing law in Denver.
