back view doesn't look very promising. Coulter will probably start the game at Angney's place, but this week is the first work Coulter has had this year at running the team. Stephenson, Rice, Forter, Porter, Dennis and Steele are the back field possibilities. Forter will have to play the whole game, probably, as with Angney out there is no particular good punter besides Forter on the squad.

Y. W. C. A. NOTES.

November 11-15 will be observed by the Y. W. C. A. as a week of prayer in response to the call to prayer which has been issued by the World's Executive Committee, London. Every year requests come to this committee for prayer by workers in different countries, and in order that the work of the Association may be blessed more fully and completely the week of prayer is observed by every Association in the world.

During the week of prayer an offering will be taken for the work in foreign fields. In the United States this offering is termed the "World's Nickel," and all members of the Association are invited to contribute a nickel for this fund.

The leaders of the noon meetings, November 11-15, are:

November 11—Miss Adams, Deaconess. Trinity Methodist church. "The Royal Command."

November 12—Carrie Schultz, "The Divine Key to Successful Watching."
November 13—Mrs. Hinman, "Watchfulness in Our Relation to Others."

November 14—Jean Sullivan, "Need of Watchfulness in Temptation."

November 15—Dr. Ward, "Watchfulness in Success."

Advantage in Football Victories.

"The scholarship in the university will be lowered if we do not beat Chicago." This startling statement was made by Professor Melom of the Spanish department at Minnesota.

He gave it as his opinion that a great football game lost to another rival demoralizes all classes. He said that he found this to be strikingly true from 1896 to 1900, when so many defeats fell to the share of the Maroon and Gold.

"When a defeat has been sustained, all interest in class work vanishes, but after a great victory, everyone is bright, jubilant, enthusiastic, and this spirit enters into the class room, inciting all to better lessons."

The Lincoln High School will play the Harlan team on the Nebraska field at 3 o'clock this afternoon. The Lincoln team is about 800 per cent better than at the time of the West Des Moines game and a hot scrimmage is looked for. Football experts say that the game will be close.

German III.

The lesson for Monday, November 11, in the 9:00 o'clock division of German III will be: Willkommen in Deutschland 1st Letter.

Dr. Wharton, formerly pastor of St. Paul's, will speak at the Oliver Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. This will be a treat and none can afford to miss it.

Members of the Cornhusker Staff will please call upon the managing editors for write-up blanks.

Dr. Bessey was called out of town yesterday to testify in an important law-suit.

A meeting of the Senior Class will take place Thursday morning at 11:30 o'clock in Memorial Hall.
