Y. M. C. A. EDITION.

Tomorrow's number of the Daily Nebraskan will be devoted entirely to the interests of the University Y. M. C. A. The Y. M. C. A. officials will have complete charge and will assume the entire responsibility for the material therein. This action is taken on the part of the management of the Nebraskan in recognition of the extremely valuable work the above organization does in connection with this University, and for the further reason that its place and function should be appreciated by the student body generally and not be limited to a few.

This precedent of giving one issue during the school year to the Y. M. C. A. was established a few years ago and it was thought by those who had the interests of the organization most

CHICAGO LETTER.

Doings of Cornhuskers as Recorded in Windy City.
(Fred Ballard)

W. E. Hawthorne, formerly assistant physical director and a member of the class of '09, is assistant physical director in the Oak Park department of the Chicago Y. M. C. A.

Miss Helen Redington, '05, is engaged in Y. W. C. A. work in New York City. Miss Redington received her M. A. in the Department of Literature last June.

Harry L. Swan, ex. '08, is traveling representative of the Redpath Lyceum Bureau with headquarters at Detroit. He is at present organizing and managing the Y. M. C. A. lecture course at Grand Rapids, Michigan.

The Chicago University of Nebraska Club has changed its place of meeting from the North American Cafe to the Hamilton Club rooms, where it will lunch every Wednesday noon until further notice. Any and all Nebraskans, grads and undergrads, co-eds and faculty members, who are in the city on that day are urgently invited to call around and drop in for luncheon. The Hamilton Club is located on Monroe and Clark streets.

An effort is being made by the St. Louis alumni of the University of Nebraska to bring Varsity men from neighboring cities to the St. Louis-Nebraska game Thanksgiving. The Chicago U. of N. Club has been asked to send a bunch of rooters to the Missouri city for the game, but it is quite probable that few or none of its members will accept the invitation, the chances of a close game being too slight to entice them from a pleasant holiday at home. Were Carlyle Indians not to play in Chicago the Sat-at heart that much good accrued to it from such action. It is to be hoped that their expectations will not be disappointing but that on the contrary will be fully justified this time. No matter how cursory the interest of some of the students is in the work and prosperity of the Y. M. C. A. all are obliged to admit that its unselfish devotion to the welfare of those who ask help of it in material as well as other ways justifies no such lack of interest. There is no other body of men in the student body whose purpose and aim is more free from selfish motives than the Y. M. C. A. Their work is broadly democratic, no one who is deserving need fear that the help wanted would be denied if it is possible for them to give it.

A large new induction coil has just been received by the physics department. This coil, which is made by a Swiss manufacturer, gives a 20-inch spark, and it is the largest coil in the state. It will be used chiefly for demonstration purposes.

urday before the game or were there any prospects of St. Louis putting up a contest which would in any way endanger the supremacy of the Cornhusker team in the Missouri valley. Chicago Nebraskans might see fit to attend the game and do their share toward defending the football honor of their alma mater. As it is, however, they will content themselves with reading the evening reports of the game and wondering why it was that the St. Louis institution didn't make a better showing.

Frank Barks, ex. '07, now with the Continental Steel Company of St. Louis, writes that in spite of its trimming at the hands of Wabash College, St. Louis is confident of winning from Nebraska next Thanksgiving day. The "Show Me" institution bases its hopes almost entirely upon the toe of its star kicker and the tricks which its coach has invented and is now perfecting specially for the Nebraska game.
