

Pick Out the Best

It isn't always easy to pick the best out of a good bunch but where they are all good it doesn't make so much difference

When you see a man with one of our suits or overcoats on surrounded by any other clothes, you have no trouble in selecting the best dressed man; his clothes distinguish him; but where the whole bunch wear . . .

Armstrong Clothes

it is not so easy to say which is best; they are all best.

The Thanksgiving harvest feast is at hand now. You see to getting the bird, and so far as you are personally concerned, we will look after the "dressing" for you. We will put one of our fine suits on you, or a good overcoat; you will be "dressed" for it, all right. You can take your pick from a fine lot of good clothes here--they are all so good there's not much selecting necessary--you can't make a mistake.

Suits and O'coats $10 to $40, with the stronger lines at $10, $15, $20, $25.
