CORNHUSKER FEED

ANNUAL BANQUET TO FOOTBALL TEAM SATURDAY.

Innocents Have Made Arrangements For Plenty of Good Food, Many Toasts and Much Good Music.

The annual Cornhusker banquet, tendered to the football players of the University of Nebraska by the patriotic students of this institution will be given at the Lindell hotel Saturday evening, December 14.

This year's feast promises to be the best that has been held since the custom of banqueting the team was established. The innocents, upon whom the duty of getting up the an-

TEAM HAS GONE.

Nebraska Team Left for Minnesota Yesterday.

The Nebraska debating team which will contest with Minnesota left yesterday afternoon at 4:30 on the Burlington. A few of the enthusiasts were at the train to give the boys a send-off and express their well-wishes. The team arrived in Minnesota at eight o'clock this morning, and will thus have plenty of time to rest up before the debate.

The Iowa team arrived in Lincoln this morning accompanied by one of their professors. They are planning to make the fight of their lives tomorrow night.

The judges at the Iowa-Nebraska debate will be:

Professor Isador Loeb.
Judge J. H. Quinn.
Hon. Ben. C. Taylor.
The judges at the Minnesota-Nebraska debate will be:
Judge A. J. Vinje.

BASKET-BALL GOSSIP.

The Cornhuskers Are Fast Rounding Into Shape.

Considerable difficulty is being met with in the developing of the basketball team which is to represent Nebraska this year, owing to the absence of two star players, namely, Moser and Burriss, of the Cornhusker five of last year.

The Bell brothers of last year's team, are working out at guard and are fixtures in their positions.

Of the new men trying for the guard positions, perhaps the most promising is Perry of last year's freshman team. Perry is doing good work this season and is developing great speed and accuracy in his throwing.

Among the other candidates for the guard positions are E. A. Schmid, a substitute last year.

H. G. Schmidt and Long, a freshman, are showing up pretty well and

PLAY THREE YEARS

A NEW RULING WHICH AFFECTS GRADUATE STUDENTS.

The Conference Permits Graduates Who Have not Played Three Years of Football to Do So.

At its last meeting the "Big Nine" Conference changed its limit of participation rule so that students who have taken a degree but have not played three years of football may compete for the full three years. This revision of rule six will make Matters and Frum eligible for football next fall. Both of these men will take a degree next spring and in case they re-enter the University next fall will be allowed nual feed rests, have this year made elaborate preparations to insure the success of the function. The toast list is large and contains some of the best wit in the University.

Several of the best musicians in the city have been secured and the innocents feel certain that the music end of the program Saturday will please everybody present. Manager Houver of the Lindell is charging the boys one dollar a plate for the food and he says it costs him more than that and is worth at least one dollar and a half. If, after the banquet, anybody feels that he has not had enough to eat, Mr. Houver says he will feed them for a week. He declares every man will get more than his fill.

The innocents who are selling the tickets for the banquet have a few left and wish to get rid of them before Judge A. J. Fruit.

Professor Scott.

Professor Loeb is a professor at the University of Missouri and one of the men most prominently identified with debating at that institution.

Judge J. H. Quinn is a judge in the Seventeenth judicial district. He is a graduate of the College of Law of the University of Wisconsin. He has been on the bench since 1891.

Hon. Ben. C. Taylor of Mankato, Minn., is the city attorney and graduated from the College of Law of the University of Minnesota in 1895. When in college he was a well known debater.

Judge A. J. Vinje of Superior, Wis., and Judge A. J. Fruit of La Crosse, Wis., are federal circuit judges and graduates of the University of Wisconsin.

Professor Scott is able to be a satisfactory judge as he is a trained lawyer.

will develop into good men.

The center position is causing the greatest trouble and it is the hardest position to fill. Anthes has been trying for this place all season, but is ineligible this semester.

John Weller, captain of the 1907 football team, is the most likely candidate for the center position. Weller played center on the second team last year and has a fair knowledge of the game. "Cap" is big and heavy and is jumping well in his position, besides playing a fast all around game.

Richey, although handicapped by his lack of weight, is playing good ball at center.

Murphy, another candidate for center who played good ball the first of the season has not been out for practice lately on account of injuries.

For the forward position Walsh is the only one who has a "clinch" on his to participate in football during the season.

Since the change in the participation rule Matters has been considered a strong candidate for the captaincy of the 1908 eleven. Before graduates were made eligible to participate, Harvey and Cooke, both Juniors, were looked upon as the only men having chances of attaining the leadership of next season's team. The contest is now regarded as three-cornered between Harvey, Matters and Cooke, with chances equal.

The limit of participation rule, as revised by the Conference colleges, is as follows:

No student shall participate in intercollegiate athletics for more than three years in an aggregate; and any member of a college team who plays during any part of an intercollegiate contest does thereby participate in
