A PLAY BY SHAW.

lawyer, and Vallentine is filled by Mr. Riedel.

This play will be staged in the new theatre on the evening of January 18, and all arrangements are being made to make this production a great success. The club will be at a big expense in putting it on, for there will be a heavier royalty on this play than any other they could have found. Stanford University staged this play with great success last year. It has also been put on in Denver, and all lovers of real dramatic work and the higher art are looking on this as a real advance.

ATTENTION, BOHEMIAN STUDENTS!

Miss Sara Hrbek, sister of the late Professor Hrbek, has been appointed by the University authorities to continue the classes in Bohemian. She has accepted and will take up the work after the holidays.
