The Butcher's Love Speech.
Dear heart I'm in an awful Stew
How I'll re-veal my love for you
I'm such a Mutton head I fear
I feel so Sheepish when you are near
I know its only Cow-ardice
That makes these Lamb-entations rise
I dread a Cut let me explain
A single Roast would give me pain
I should not like to get the Hook
And dare not Steak my hope on looks
I never Sausage eyes as thine
If you would Butcher hand in mine
And Liver-ound me every day
We'd seek some Ham-let far away
We'd Meat life's frown with love caress
And Cleaver-road to happiness.

The men's meeting held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. in the Temple last Sunday morning was attended by some three or four hundred students. The address of Dr. Winfield S. Hall, Dean of the Medical College of Northwestern University, was listened to with the undivided attention of all present. The subject, "Sexual Hygiene," was treated in a very comprehensive and detailed fashion. Over 100 copies of the speaker's new book on this subject were purchased by those present.

C. E. Quinn, '05, now employed in the United States Department of Agriculture, is the author of a bulletin on "Forage Crops for Hogs in Kansas and Oklahoma." The bulletin is issued from the government printery by the bureau of plant industry. It is pronounced, by those who know, to be a very creditable piece of work. After graduating, Mr. Quinn took some graduate work, entering the national service only about two years ago. Since then he has done commendable work.

The grasp of the clasp is easy. It's flat—the only absolutely flat clasp garter is the Brighton. Millions of men know this—buy them and wear them. The wear is there, and they cost only a quarter a pair. Remember it.

Brightons are made of pure silk web. The patterns are new, exclusive—variety enough to satisfy everybody. All metal parts are of heavy nickel-plated brass. If your dealer can't supply you, a pair will be sent upon receipt of price.
