ORGANIZED AGRICULTURE.

This week will bring a large number of farmers to the Agricultural Institute now under way at the State Farm. It is to be hoped that the students of the other colleges of the University will be ready and willing to extend to these visitors whatever courtesies they may be able to extend. The welfare and continued prosperity of this University depends in a large measure upon the feeling that these farmers may have in regard to it. Although they may be more especially interested along other lines, it certainly is the right spirit on the part of the University students to manifest in whatever way possible the consideration and high regard felt for them whenever the occasion presents itself.

GOOD PRODUCTION.
 very effective. As Valentine, Mr.
 Riedel was convincing. The real contrasts in the character he conveyed with admirable transitions. From earnestness to a humorous conscous-ness of his own inconsistencies he passed so effectively that the audience was always enjoyably in the secret.
 Mr. Riedel would do well to master his grammar. Mr. Houseworth as Crampton improved so much after the first act that his transition into complacency in the last were among the most effective touches in the play.
 The McComas of Mr. Dick Russell was difficult because the degree of pompousness demanded is not, fortunately, easily attainable in youth.
 Mr. Russell, however, did his part with credit throughout, and gave Dolly just cause to ask Bohun to "bully Finch for us." Mr. Elliott's Bohun was an effective "overwhelmer." His voice was admirably adapted to the part. Miss Laura Fisher as maid made a very pretty picture.
 Miss Howell, and Mr. Riedel, who did much for the success of the play in coaching the caste during the holidays,—are to be congratulated for their thorough going success. It is to be hoped that this is only the first of a series of modern plays to be presented by the University Dramatic Club.

People who are always crying for somebody "to elevate the American stage" will be pleased with the singing novelty act given by the Rennee family at the Lyric this week. The family, of whom there are five, render selections from various operas and do it well. Minnie St. Clair, "A Girl from Missouri," is a clever comedienne of the Sis Hopkins order. She is a laugh producer. Earnest Lenora, a monologist, sings those disgusting parodies on "In the Shade of the Old Apple Tree." His is an unpardonable sin. Commenco brothers, clown acrobats, are better than when they were here last season. Judge, Decoma and Judge, a trio of aerial artists, are above the average.

Leonard B. Hertz, 1903, will instruct the class in Telephony in the Electrical Engineering department next semester. Mr. Hertz is general manager of the Lincoln Telephone company.
