Sophomore Informal.
Tickets are now out for the Sophomore leap year informal to be held in Memorial Hall next Friday evening. The evening will be devoted to dancing. Programs will be given out at 8:30 sharp. Ladies will not be required to ask their escorts, but in accordance with the leap year idea, will be requested to fill the programs. The admission is not restricted to the Sophomore class alone.

Mr. Albert Watkins of this city, author of the Watkins-Morton History of Nebraska, has kindly consented to give a course on the History of Nebraska, two hours per week, next semester. Mr. Watkins knows more of Nebraska history than any man in the state. This course is American History 14. All students wishing the course will please notify Professor Caldwell.

Three aspirants for the presidency of the Sophomore class have presented themselves as candidates, S. A. Mahood of Columbus, R. S. Mosley of Lincoln, and Harry Ingles of Crete. All have been prominent in class affairs and the friends of each expect them to make a strong fight for the highest honors the class has to offer.

The Sophomore class meets in Memorial Hall next Thursday at 11:30. The business to come before the class is of importance and it is hoped that every member will be present. Reports of the standing committees and the treasurer will be given. Representation in the Cornhusker will also be discussed.

A NEW COURSE.

The Department of Greek offers a new course for the second semester. This course will be known as "Greek in English"—Course 2b—and will emphasize the study of English words, especially modern scientific terms, derived and borrowed from the Greek language. It is intended primarily for those who may wish to obtain in one semester a fair knowledge of the Greek elements in our own language. It may also be used as preparation for second year Greek (course 3). It will be a five hour course—Daily at 11:00 in U. 201, by Professor Lees.

Consultation any afternoon, office, 215 U.
