ENDS CLASS SCRAP.

The action of Chancellor Andrews yesterday afternoon brings to an end the kidnapping of Chairman MacDonald and leaves the perpetrators of the kidnapping in a sorrowful condition. Whether this means the end of all such affairs remains to be seen. It is hoped that it will be. There may be some fun in stealing a chairman of a hop, but with the authorities disapproving there has resulted a great deal more of disaster than pleasure.

A man is kept away from his school work for several days just before examinations, the freshman class is disorganized and loses its president, four men lose their credit for an entire semester and one man is indefinitely suspended from school. This is the net

THE MESSAGE.

Whether or not we believe President Roosevelt's message is a bid for a third term, there is no denying the fact that it is creating a good deal of talk about corporate wealth. Sentiment will not solve the problem, but it will do something at this stage of the country's progress. At any rate the president's utterances will have considerable influence in the next campaign and it is well worth the time of the busy student to read it and think about it.

The Cornhusker voting contest has proved a joke in most respects, but there is one thing on which the sentiment of the students seems to be unanimous, and that is the need of a football field. All jokes are laid aside when this question is reached and the vote is invariably a great, big "YES." "The greatest need of the University."

Tryouts Saturday.

The preliminaries for the Charter Day exercises will be held in the Armory, Saturday, February 8, at 2:30. The purpose of this tryout is to cut down the number of athletes who can participate on Charter Day, so that only contestants of the first class may enter.

The number of contestants that may enter Charter Day events is as follows: In the sprints, eight; and in all other events—the fence vault, pole vault, running high kick, running high jump, shot put, and rope climb, the number is limited to four.

Aspirants may practice this afternoon at four o'clock.

The committee in charge of the Company "B" Hop have announced that it will be held March 27th at Fraternity Hall and Walt's Orchestra result of the whole affair. Is the game worth the cost? In view of the position taken by the Chancellor certainly it is not.

These affairs have come to be carried too far when a man is taken nearly a week before the dance comes off, and it seems high time that some check be made in the matter. However unfortunate it may be for the victims, this affair will serve as a warning to future classes.

NO BOOKS.

Complaint is again heard of the difficulty in getting books in the library. This is the result of no new symptom on the part of some few students, who by a lax spirit of morality, not only injure themselves, but incidentally discomode the more conscientious student.

There is no difference in essence between hiding a book intended for the common use of a large number of students and stealing it outright. Many thoughtless men and women will do this and laugh at their own dishonesty. There are pranks and pranks, and this is one which is becoming anything but funny.

will furnish the music. Company "B" is the only company of the battalion having social organization. It holds a dance and a banquet each year. S. A. Mahood is chairman of the hop committee and Art Jones, master of ceremonies.

Freshman Hop.

The Freshman Hop will be held at the Lincoln, Friday evening, March 13. Abbott's orchestra has been engaged for the occasion. Tickets will be $2.00 and the number sold is to be absolutely limited to eighty-five. It is hoped by the committee that at least one informal dance be given at which the crowded condition will not interfere with the pleasure of the evening.

The Hawkeye Club was pleasantly entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. F. A. Williams, 407 South Twenty-sixth street. This was the third of a series of informals which have been held this year. Besides the informal meeting, officers were elected as follows: W. H. Reynolds, president; Allen Cole, vice president; H. S. Ballenger, treasurer; Miss Jeanette Morgan, secretary.
