DANCES CONFLICT.

Owing to the conflicting dates of the Junior Informal and the Basket Ball Informal last Saturday night Manager Eager is about eighty dollars in debt and the Junior class has taken in all the sheekles. It is unfortunate, so long as the Junior class expects to have its regular dance so soon, that it should fix a date conflicting with the arrangements of the athletic manager. Basket ball should receive the support of all and particularly of class organizations.

In addition to causing the financial embarrassment of the athletic manager, so many dances are creating a veritable panic among the students accustomed to attend these affairs. Every organization in school is perhaps tive life was eligible for such a position. This is now reversed; the retirement is all on the part of the perpetrators of the joke. Perhaps this accounts for the unusual activity in class politics just at present.

Kansas City, Mo., Jan. 28, 1908. The Daily Nebraskan, Lincoln, Nebraska:

I thought I better write and tell you what the boys in Kansas City are doing in the name of our ALMA MATER.

We have organized what is known as "THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA CLUB." The membership of this club is composed of all who were ever in regular attendance at the University and who possess the "Nebraska Spirit."

Our organization was formed about two weeks ago and a few nights ago our President, Dr. William E. Cramer, entertained the club in royal style at the Sexton Grill Room. Dr. Craner is one of those boys who attended the University away back in 1884, and is still as young and as full of the Nebraska Spirit as any of us.

We plan on getting the club together for noon-day lunch about once a month, and an occasional evening spread will be had, to which the Coeds will be invited.

If you can assist us in getting track of any Nebraska men down this way whom we have not yet found, kindly do so. Very truly yours,

ROSCOE J. ANDERSON, Secretary-Treasurer.

Such a letter speaks well for the institution that has educated these loyal alumni. A club of the boys of '84 would probably be an impossibility in such a place as Kansas City, but a University Club is not only feasible, but pleasurable and advantageous.

entitled to give a dance if it wants to, but the thing is being carried to an extreme this year. There are Junior Proms and Junior Informals, Freshman Hop and Freshman Informal, and so on. Only the most flush or those financially irresponsible can take in all these functions. Is not one University dance enough for any night?

The resolution adopted by the Third Conference of Deans and Advisers of Women in State Universities favoring segregation in lodging houses supports the action taken in Nebraska in the matter. While the authorities here are in the lead in this and other movements, they are not alone. When the representatives of the leading state institutions all over the West agree unanimously that a rule is advisable, you can rely upon it that the movement is growing and will become permanent.

Now that the Chancellor has set his foot down on stealing chairmen, there may be more aspirants for such honors. Up to this time only a man who was willing to incur the risk of a week or two of retirement from ac-

This is one advantage of "Nebraska Spirit" over '84 spirit.

The editor of the North Platte Tribune has been doing a little research work in English history. The following old English statute is one of the results of his labors:

"That all women of whatever age, rank, profession or degree, whether virgins, maids or widows, that shall, from and after the passing of this act, impose upon and betray into matrimony any of his majesty's subjects by scents, paints, washes, cosmetics, artificial teeth, false hair, Spanish wool, iron stays, hoops, high heeled shoes or bolstered hips shall incur the penalty of the laws now in force against witchcraft, sorcery and such like misdemeanors, and that the marriage, upon conviction, shall be null and void."

The first order of '08 class pins have come and will be distributed Friday afternoon from 1 to 5 o'clock in room 207, Administration building. Those who have not yet ordered pins can do so at the time set apart for the distribution of the first order.
