3. Each student who receives a degree in 1908-1909 and, also, each undergraduate who does not expect to return in 1908-1909, is requested to leave with the Registrar his place of residence and occupation for the coming year. THE REGISTRAR.

The value of advice to the student in regard to his course is recognized by all, and is at present provided for by the system of faculty advisers. But a busy faculty member with a long line of students waiting to see him cannot be expected to give the time to a student necessary to find out his individual needs and wishes, as well as his parents or his intimate friends can. It is expected that most students will look upon the new plan with great favor, inasmuch as most of them have at one time or another been compelled to spend days in registering, where hours would suffice under the proposed system.

Charter Day preliminaries will be held Saturday, February 8th, at 2:30 p. m. The following events will take place:

- 25-yard dash.
- Pole vault.
- Fence vault.
- High jump.
- High kick.
- Inter-fraternity relay race.

The contestants in all events will be cut down to four men, except the 25-yard dash, in which eight men will be left for the semi-final heats on Charter day.

The Dramatic Club has planned to give a program and dance in their new home in the Temple, Saturday, February 22. The time from 8 until 9 will be given to a playlet entitled, "Washington's First Defeat," in which Mr. Hugh Robertson has the leading part. The remaining part of the evening will be given to dancing.

Miss Bonnie Adams has charge of both the program and the dance. Members of the club and their friends are invited. Tickets may be secured from Miss Adams.

Notice, Juniors and Seniors.

All Juniors and Seniors who have not yet had their pictures taken for the '08 Cornhusker should do so before Saturday evening, February 8th. This is absolutely the last call. All members of '08 and '09 who have registered this semester should also have this done not later than the same date.

The Officers' Club of the State Farm Battalion will give a banquet at the Lindell Hotel Friday evening, February 7. Chancellor Andrews, Principal Davisson, Captain Workizer and their wives are guests of honor. Major Frankforter and Lieutenant Moore are also invited.

Seniors Attention.

Don't forget the distribution of the first order of Senior pins today from 1 to 5 p. m. in room 207, Administration building.
