University of Nebraska, Feb. 13. To the Deans of the University:

The class of 1908 of the University of Nebraska wishes to express its sentiment in favor of the establishment of a "Class Day" to be celebrated on what is at present known as "Ivy Day," and to be participated in by all four classes of the University, and wishes further respectfully to ask the signification of the approval of the Deans in a request made to the Regents for a full holiday on this occasion.

The program, as planned, includes, in the morning, the usual "Ivy Day" exercises on the campus, in the afternoon, an interclass athletic fete at the State Farm, a picnic lunch at the same place and in the evening the presentation of an outdoor operetta. All classes are to contribute to the entertainment and serious effort is to be made toward the establishment of a really worthy custom.

Respectfully submitted,

J. CARROLL RHODE,
ARTHUR JORGENSEN,
Committee.

The undersigned hereby signify their approval of the plan:

Ellery W. Davis.
Henry W. Ward.
Geo. P. Costigan, Jr.

Girls Can Play Basket-Ball.

At a recent meeting of the athletic board, the following stand was taken as to whether the board did or did not approve of girls' intercollegiate athletic contests:

"In answer to the communication from the Dean of Women, the athletic board, after full and careful consideration, sees no reason for reversing the past policy of the University in regard to intercollegiate athletic games between women students."

As a result of this decision it is said to be likely that games with Wesleyan and with Minnesota will be played in the near future.

Inter-Fraternity Athletic Meet.

Dr. Clapp has been considering the possibility of holding an inter-fraternity indoor athletic meet in the near future.

Representatives from each fraternity are requested to meet in his office at 11 o'clock this morning. Dr. Clapp wishes to have the meet if possible about a week before the Kansas City indoor meet which takes place on March 20.

The engineering society will meet Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the Science Hall of the Temple. Mr. Butler, an expert pump tester will give a talk on pumps. Mr. Butler is now engaged by six different companies as tester. All engineers and those interested in this line of work should be present.

Notice.

There will be a meeting next Wednesday at 12 M. of the Pan-Hellenic delegates to elect the master of ceremonies and the chairman for the Pan-Hel. Room U.
