

GERMAN CLUB NEWS.

Play Tonight Promises Success—Club Reunion.

The play, "Miller and Muller," to be presented tonight by the German Club promises to be an artistic and financial success. The advance sale of tickets has been large, much to the pleasure of the management.

The furnishings and music as well as the play are to be characteristically German from "Die Wacht am Rhein" as a curtain raiser, to the close. In connection with the play a new custom is to be originated by the club. A reunion of old members, alumnae and others, has been planned and if it is successful will be made an annual event. Some former members, even from other states, have signified their intentions of attending the first reunion, today.

Tickets will be on sale all day today at the Temple. Admission twenty-five and thirty-five cents. The curtain rises promptly at 8:15.

Art Lectures.

The following letter in regard to Dr. Powers has been received:

My Dear Professor Barber:
I am glad that the Art Association is bringing Dr. Powers, for he will give them a great treat and stimulus.

From two years of association with Dr. Powers in the same university department, I am able to predict that his lectures on art will prove to be a great treat and may be the beginning of a great awakening. Dr. Powers is a profound scholar, thinker and art critic, and his work for several years has brought him into the most intimate knowledge of works of art and of art schools. He is a powerful, eloquent and incisive lecturer, and before he gets through his hearers will be sitting on the front edge of their chairs. I am only sorry that I cannot listen to the lectures myself.

These lectures will be given at the Temple, March 4, 6 and 7. Season tickets, one dollar, at Porter's Crancer's, the Co-op, and the University Look stores. Very sincerely yours,
E. A. ROSS.

Omaha Medics Elect.

After a hard and prolonged fight for the presidency the Senior Medical class finally elected Geo. W. Sullivan to that office. Mr. Sullivan is a member of the Sigma Nu medical fraternity; was captain of the first medic baseball team and a member of the Medical Society.

The following officers were also elected: Vice-president, Charles Lieber; secretary, Bret V. Bates; treasurer, J. F. Premer; sergeant-at-arms, D. B. Mullikin.

Spring 1908 - Models Now Ready

NEVER mind the weather man, the calendar says spring.

No end to the nifty new suit models we're showing and selling too. They're the swagger college kind—so different from the other fellows.

Long graceful lapels, buttons—2 or 3 grouped close together, deep pointed cuffs with small buttons. Vest has patch pockets and trousers have wide roll bottoms, welt seams, close fitting waists, buttoned hip and watch pockets and real "peggy." The swellest colorings of tans and browns you have ever seen. Don't put it off—come around and see them. Peep into our west window. : : :
