SOUTH OMAHA TRIP.
 The rate at which the turkey disappeared speaks well of the plain and substantial menu served. Professor H. R. Smith acted as toastmaster. The following responded to toasts:
 1. Professor Jones, manager of the National Corn Show, "Corn."
 2. Mr. McCullough, editor of Drovers' Journal, "Growth of South Omaha Market."
 3. Peter Jansen, "Sheep."
 4. Mr. Jeffries, "Farm Training."
 5. Mr. Roberts, of Roberts-Cowan Co., "The Old and New."
 6. Regent Whitmore, "Future of the School of Agriculture."
 7. Mr. Vantine, president of Short Course class, "Short Course."
 8. Professor Burnett, "Work of the Nebraska Experiment Station."
 In addition to this, Dr. Peters and Manager Buckingham of the Union Stock Yards Company gave short addresses.
 The students showed their appreciation by continually giving their various yells.
 The train left for Lincoln at 10 p. m.

MEDIC SPEAKER.
H. W. Wiley Accepts Invitation for Commencement.
 Dear Dr. Ward:
 Absence from the city has prevented an earlier reply to the very flattering invitation which you sent me under date of the 3d instant to deliver the Commencement address for the College of Medicine on Thursday, the 21st of May. I take pleasure in accepting the invitation, and this pleasure is the result of many factors. First, I am anxious to meet the medical profession of Nebraska, which has stood as a unit for purity of foods and drugs, and, second, I am glad of the opportunity of seeing again that portion of Nebraska which is pre-eminently recognized as standing for higher education; and, third, I am glad to accept the invitation because I consider it a recognition, not of me personally, but of the principles for which I have tried to stand.
 Sincerely,
 H. W. WILEY.
