ing is finished it will be one of the best for its purpose in the country and the University is indeed fortunate in having a man of Professor Richards' ability to design it.

Student Patents an Eraser.

William H. Hartley, a former student in the department of entomology, at present a teacher in the night schools of Lincoln, has invented and patented an eraser which collects the dust and stores it inside. The patent is estimated to be worth from ten to twenty thousand dollars and is clearly a great improvement over the old dust-producing eraser.

Palladian Play.

Another surprise. The Mystic Maze. Have you seen it? Well, it's a great play and the Palladian girls are the actors. All the glory of the "Orient" will be presented. The occasion is the girls' program which will be given in Palladian Hall next Friday evening. Other than members are invited.

The Union restaurant at Brown has been closed, because the management feared that it would have to be run at a loss. The Brown Daily Herald ascribes the falling off of patronage to the low standards of cleanliness and unattractiveness which prevailed.

Forestry Lecture.

F. B. Moody, assistant state forester of Wisconsin, will give a course of fifteen lectures to the forestry students. The lectures will begin next week.

Senior Play.

There will be an important meeting of the Senior Play Committee Friday at 5:00 p. m. in U. 106. Every member must be present.

Notice.

The interfraternity athletic council will meet today at 5 p. m. Dr. Clapp's office.—Ellet Drake.

are to vote on: Who is the most popular prof? Who is the most unpopular prof? Who is the handsomest man? Degrees will be conferred upon the winners.
