

Smart Suits

For Young Men....

The average young man, especially the College Chaps are "sticklers" for style. Nothing but the newest in fabrics and the swellest in cut will please them. All our young men's clothing is made by young men's tailors who possess the knack of making just the correct thing in the highest degree. This same clothing....

"The Famous Society Brand" is worn by the best dressed men the country over. Come here with all your particular and smart notions of dress and have them fully gratified.

this month. The committee has arranged for a very entertaining evening. The affair will be given at the Acacia house, 1216 H street. They are preparing for a larger smoker than last time on account of its great success.

A dance will also be given by the Engineering society within the next six weeks. It is hoped that it will be a grand success as it is the first one attempted by the engineers, who have the reputation of being weak in the social life of the University.

rights the best in others. Arthur Jorgenson was to respond to the toast "The College Man in Politics," but was unavoidably absent. Louis Gregory spoke on that subject without preparation and acquitted himself very favorably. A short business meeting was held before adjournment.

Brown of Harvard.

"Brown of Harvard," the original college play and the only one that was ever produced in a Broadway play house in New York, will play an engagement of Wednesday matinee and night at the Oliver Theater.

The star of this metropolitan organization, Henry Woodruff, is one of America's best known and greatest comedians, and in "Brown of Harvard" he has achieved even a greater triumph than he did in "When We Were Twenty-one." The supporting cast, numbering thirty-two, is composed chiefly of players who have attended one or another of the leading colleges. Many exciting and sensational effects are promised, among them a boat race between the Harvard eight and an English crew, an incident which never fails to lift the audience to its feet with enthusiasm.

Against Women Debaters.

The Cornell-Columbia-Pennsylvania Debating League has taken definite steps to prevent "co-eds" from debating. W. B. Woodbury of Columbia started the movement to bar a Cornell "co-ed" debater, but Cornell said the endowment which supported the institution was given on condition that women should not be discriminated against. The matter was settled by Cornell agreeing that no woman should try for a team for five years.

"Current Events," will be the general subject of the literary program to be given in the Palladian hall, Friday evening.
