It is a good thing to go to chapel even if the faculty don't go. They may have good reason, but even the nice weather is not a valid reason for the absence of the students. It is better to be bored by half a dozen poor programs than to miss one good one.

There are always things going on in the administration of a great institution like this University that escape the notice of the public. Just now the heads of departments are making out their plans for next year, preparatory to recommending improvements, increasing teaching staff and asking are the means of furthering injustice at the hands of the fraternity element. The thing, then, for the suffrage club is to agree to vote intelligently in these college matters and demonstrate their right to the privileges they now have.

The Michigan Daily in commenting on the recent raid of the students on a vaudeville theater, says that the action of the students is greatly to be regretted and then proceeds to attempt to justify the whole thing by saying that in most college towns "it is meager justice that the unfortunate student who falls into the hands of the law." The justice which the raiding students got was probably meager enough; they ought to have been "canned" one and all.

Equal Suffrage League.

The College Girls' Equal Suffrage League held its first regular meeting Wednesday evening at the Kappa Alpha Theta house from eight until ten. Short articles on interesting topics were read by Miss Jean Fleming, Miss Constance Syford, and Miss Jessie Power. Several amendments to the constitution were proposed and discussed.

The members voted to hold meetings about every three weeks for the rest of the semester, instead of only once or twice more as planned earlier. After the program and the short business

A Color Season In Men's Suits

You'll say so and be glad of it if you'll take a look at the new tan effects already upon our tables. No season for years has brought such a variety of tasty patterns and colors so appropriate to the spring season. The fabrics are uniformly fast in color and most dependable for service. It is a real pleasure to show them. Give us the chance.

for their distributive portions of the funds appropriated for this purpose. Of course each department is anxious to grow as rapidly as possible and the prediction, judging from the past is that most of the estimates will be cut down in the final apportionment.

"Turn, boys, turn; we're going back," is the watchword for some of the law class in "property one" suggested by one of the class. Most of the students in the academic colleges have already turned (if that was their fate) and it is to be hoped that their rally will prove successful. There is nothing like being thorough, and its a shame that only 20 per cent of the students have the privilege of going over part of their work a second time.

In the face of the girls' equal suffrage club, the boys propose to disfranchise them in the Athletic Board election. If the girls have not voted at all or at least intelligently in the past, is that any reason why their vote should be taken away? Under ordinary conditions it would not be, but as conditions now are, the girls meeting light refreshments were served by the hostesses. An invitation to hold the next meeting at the Alpha Omicron Pi house was extended and accepted.
