Correct styles in Men's Clothing

In direct contrast to the loud, glaring patterns of last spring and fall is the rich elegance of styles for this spring. Every garment we have to show you was made for this season's wear.

ELLIOTT TONIGHT.

 message which is backed by a frank, open personality that always wins the closest attention. To hear his acquaintances speak of "Dad" one discovers that theirs is more than a passing regard.

Practically all University organizations have refrained from arranging any functions tonight.

The meeting begins at seven and will not continue one moment past eight thirty.

This is a rare opportunity to hear what a real, live, popular, all-around university man has to say on "The Pace That Wins." He speaks with authority. He does not dodge the issue.

While in the city "Dad" Elliott will be the guest of the Nebraska chapter of Delta Tau Delta.

Mathematical Seminar.

The Mathematical Seminar meets Saturday, March 21, 1908, at 7:30 p. m. in M. A. 301. The following is the program:

"Function Co-ordinates".....
Professor Stout

"History and Methods of Calculating Logarithms".....
F. H. Rosencrantz

"Theory of the Slide-rule".....
W. F. Vivian

This program should be especially attractive to engineers.

G. B. MacDonald is visiting for a few days in the city. He is en route from Washington, D. C., to Idaho, where he will be employed by the Forestry department of the government.
