Mr. Donald Plumb. Another meeting will be held tomorrow night at 6:45 and will close in time for the girls' basket-ball game. "Dad" Elliott has a sincerity and earnestness that must be heard, to be appreciated and it is hoped every man in the University will attend. His subject will be "Some of My Experiences in Athletics and in Life."

Vera Barger; guards, Nellie Stephenson (captain), Anne Watt, Hattie Rol-lings. It is not certain yet which of these are to play and which to be substitutes. The Nebraska team has been trained mainly by Miss Ina Gittings.

Between the halves of the game a small advanced gymnasium class will give the tambourine dance and one of the Swedish folk dances. Miss Adams will give the "Maid of the Mist" dance, originating with Professor Gilbert of Boston, and very popular at present with eastern gymnasium classes.

Patrons and patronesses for the game tonight are Governor and Mrs.
G. L. Sheldon, Prof. and Mrs. E. H.
Barbour, Col. and Mrs. F. M. Bills, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Tuttle, and Miss Anna Rogers.

The Minnesota players have been entertained during their stay as follows: Miss Loberg at the Alpha Omcron Pi house, Miss Shiley and Miss Ericson at the Kappa Alpha Theta house, Miss Ueland at the Alpha Phi house, Miss Neilson at the Chi Omega house, Miss Newton and Miss Fleming at the Kappa Kappa Gamma house.

EXCHANGES.
Three hundred and eighty men have registered for admission to Dartmouth with the class of 1912. This is an increase of ninety over last year at this same date.

The faculty athletic committee at Pennsylvania has passed a rule limiting the number of indoor athletic meets in which their track athletes may compete.

The Andover Theological Seminary, one of the oldest theological schools in the country, will be removed to Cambridge next fall and become affiliated with the Harvard Divinity School.

The girls of the University of Chicago recently got out an issue of the Daily Maroon, as a special leap-year number. No mere man was allowed a hand in the preparation of the issue.

At Syracuse a squad of several uniformed policemen patrolled the campus one day last week to quell a demonstration that one of the city papers had said was being planned on the occasion of the trial of several students, arrested for alleged participation in a theater riot. No disturbance resulted, and the policemen were called off.

A committee of faculty members of the University of Minnesota, who were appointed to investigate whether or not the students were being overworked in that institution, have reported that instead of being overworked, they are not worked enough.
What the students lack, they say, is system in school work. The students, in order to break even with the faculty, also put a committee to work sizing up the faculty. The report of the student committee is that the faculty, as a whole, is underworked.
