LAW BASEBALL.

Waldron, the Newly Elected Captain, Makes a Short Talk.

The law team is showing up well under its daily practice. Yesterday, on the field, Manager Randall presiding, nominations for captain were in order. It is customary for the manager to be a senior, while the captain comes from the Junior ranks. Consequently four juniors were nominated, Waldron, Coddington, McCutcheon and R. F. Green-slit. Waldron, receiving the highest number of votes, was declared elected. A short talk of encouragement followed, in which he mentioned the previous teams that have gone out before, the team of '06 being exceptionally strong, only losing one out of the season's schedule of games. There seems to be no doubt about one equally as brilliant this year. It was decided to beat the 'varsity squad at Antelope park tomorrow at 2:15. If it wasn't for the fact that the first team claims some of the members of the law branch, there wouldn't be any doubt about shutting them out. But as it now stands, it will be well enough to barely let them score. Captain Waldron certainly has the ginger, which is a main essential of a snappy ball team.

Another Prominent Nebraskan.

George A. Lee, 1904, law 1905, who is now practicing law in Spokane, Washington, was recently honored by receiving the appointment of assistant prosecuting attorney for Spokane county.

The "Spokesman's Review," in speaking of the appointment, gave Mr. Lee much praise for his past work in Spokane and urged him to run for the legislature.

While in the University he was one of the most prominent debaters and a member of the teams that debated with Kansas in 1903 and Washington in 1904.

Nebraska Students at Michigan.

Roy G. Pierce, '07, writes that he is taking graduate work in forestry at the University of Michigan. A few other former Nebraska students are at Ann Arbor. F. J. Pipal, '07, is doing graduate work in forestry; Kelso Morgan is studying law and training for long distance runs; J. W. Wopat, ex-'09, is taking electrical engineering; "Dusty" Strom is studying medicine; Alvin E. Evans, A. M. '98, is doing graduate work in Latin, Greek and Roman law.

BRIGHTON FLAT CLASP GARTERS

The grasp of the clasp is easy. It's flat—the only absolutely flat clasp garter is the Brighton. Millions of men know this—buy them and wear them. The wear is there, and they cost only a quarter a pair. Remember it.

Brightons are made of pure silk web. The patterns are new, exclusive—variety enough to satisfy everybody. All metal parts are of heavy nickel-plated brass. If your dealer can't supply you, a pair will be sent upon receipt of price.
