Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

This week the students who failed in several studies the first semester will be given an opportunity to make good. Probably the only thing that saved some of these flunkers from suspension was that the office was unable to get the grades in shape in time to prevent re-registration. Those who show no improvement by this time will have to stand the consequences.

The Michigan Daily admits after two weeks of writing in defense of the action of the students in the recent theater riot that the University is brow and the skill he has acquired in playing the game.

Fraternity government seems to be in its early stages in most of the colleges of the country. Michigan and Chicago are proposing a system of rushing which will restrict the efforts of the fraternities to a shorter period. Kansas has just recently adopted a system of pledging similar to our own, while a number of different plans are up for discussion. The sororities seem to be generally included in these proposals, in a number of cases the evils of sorority rushing receiving more attention than those of the fraternities.

Attention is called again to the Bryan Prize. The subject for the essay this year is to be, "Does the Commission System in Municipal Government Harmonize With American Institutions?" Here is an excellent opportunity for Juniors and Seniors, if interested in political subjects, to compete for this prize and for those who care little for such subjects to become interested.

Simonds Tonight.

E. J. Simonds, the state-Y. M. C. A. student secretary, will lead the mid-week meeting in the Y. M. C. A. rooms tonight. Simonds is a "commoner" and it will be well worth the time spent, between 6:30 and 7:30, to come and hear him.

The Wednesday evening meetings are becoming very popular, from sixty to seventy-five men being out every week and all men who can make time enough are urged to come out and enjoy the good fellowship of the meetings. Remember, the meeting closes at 7:30 sharp.

How About a Fancy Vest?

We have just received an elegant new line of the newest models and colorings in Fancy Vests. They are just "nifty" enough to please the college man.

getting a good deal of "regrettable notoriety" out of the incident.

The students of Illinois are planning for a national convention. Each organization, fraternity and class in school is to send a delegate and a complete mock ticket will be nominated. Whether this will result in mere sport for the students remains to be seen. The original object of the convention was to familiarize the men with the methods of such gatherings. It is doubtful whether many professors are enough of politicians to instruct the young men in all the deals that are put up at such times. Some of our college politicians don't need instruction along these lines.

The baseball ruling of the Missouri Valley Conference excusing a man who plays professional ball during the summer seems rather unjust. It would seem that a rule requiring a given amount of University credit would prevent professionalism without injuring the man who is able to go out in the summer time and earn his way through school by the sweat of his

Mr. J. T. House, brother of H. C. House of the Literature department, was on the campus yesterday. Mr. House has been president of Kingfisher College at Kingfisher, Oklahoma for thirteen years. He has severed his connection with the college now and will enter Chicago University to do special work. Previous to his work in Kingfisher College Mr. House was a student at the University of Nebraska.

Law.

The class in Domestic Relations was treated to quite a surprise yesterday when, in place of a review of the subject orally, as was formerly announced, they were greeted with written examination sheets. A few low grades may consequently result, but the ordeal is over—which is some satisfaction. It is all in the family, anyway.

Women students at Stanford recently organized a dramatic society called "The Masquers," to correspond to the men's organization known as the "Sword and Sandals."

The Harvard Medical School

With the completion of the new buildings, which were dedicated September 25th, 1906, this school now has facilities and equipment for teaching and research in the various branches of medicine probably unequalled in this country. Of the five buildings, four are devoted entirely to laboratory teaching and research. Numerous hospitals afford abundant opportunities for clinical instruction in medicine and surgery.

COURSE FOR THE DEGREE OF M. D.

A four years' course, open to bachelors of arts, literature, philosophy or science, and to persons of equivalent standing, leads to the degree of M. D. The studies of the fourth year are wholly elective; they include laboratory subjects, general medicine, general surgery and the special clinical branches.

The next school year extends from October 1, 1908, to June 24, 1909. The diploma of University of Nebraska is accepted for admission. For detailed announcement and catalogue, address

NEW POSTAL RULING.

By a recent order of the Postmaster General, no daily newspaper is allowed to send copies to subscribers who are three months or more in arrears. There are a few of the subscribers to the Daily Nebraskan who are in arrears to that extent and unless payment is made in the near future the subscriptions will be stopped. We trust that this will not be necessary and that the circulation of this paper may not need to be reduced by the oversight of some of our friends. If your subscription is unpaid, kindly mail a money order or draft to the manager as soon as convenient. This order goes into effect April 15.

HERE'S A "SNAP!" An A1 fountain pen—new, self-filling, 25 per cent discount. Inquire at Nebraskan office.
