NEW POSTAL RULING.

By a recent order of the Postmaster General, no daily newspaper is allowed to send copies to subscribers who are three months or more in arrears. There are a few of the subscribers to the Daily Nebraskan who are in arrears to that extent and unless payment is made in the near future the subscriptions will be stopped. We trust that this will not be necessary and that the circulation of this paper may not need to be reduced by the oversight of some of our friends. If your subscription is unpaid, kindly mail a money order or draft to the manager as soon as convenient. This order goes into effect April 15.
