T. N. E. SEEKS TO DUPE FRATERNITIES

Meeting to Discuss Athletic Board Election Discovered in the Whittman Garage. Accounts by Spectators.

The second floor of Whittman's automobile garage was the scene of a Pan-hellenic meeting Tuesday evening in which Theta Nu Epsilon was decidedly the controlling factor. The meeting was in response to a concerted movement on the part of the T. N. E.'s, whose political power was injured by the recent Senate ruling in regard to Athletic Board elections. These men got together Monday afternoon and that evening presented to their several chapters the idea of a panhellenic meeting for the purpose of passing resolutions stating the neutral position of the fraternities in the coming election. The so-called panhellenic conference, however, proved to be purely a T. N. E. affair.

The out-of-the-way place of meeting aroused the suspicions of some of the fraternity men not in the deal, who decided to attend the meeting. There was considerable surprise evidenced on the faces of some of the T. N. E.'s when they found strangers in the conference, but on account of the fact that, as it was purported to be a Pan-hellenic meeting, they had the privilege of coming, they held their places. They were also reassured by the presence of a goodly number of Theta Nu Epsilons who likewise were not delegates to the conference.

Business started after a few preliminaries resulting in the election of Dan McCutcheon temporary chairman and "Chick" Clark, secretary. The representatives from the several chapters reported that they were instructed to "stay with the rest of the fraternities" and to discountenance any clique which should attempt to put up a ticket in the coming election. On motion of Mr. Coufal, put with such exquisite verbosity that the secretary, Mr. Clark was obliged to delegate an amanuensis, in the person of Mr. Yoder, one of the interested spectators, it was moved that it be the sentiment of the fraternities that all organization be discountenanced, but that if any fraternity men should run it should be with the consent of the Pan-hellenic council; this to be binding upon all fraternities.

It was suggested by Mr. Johnson of Alpha Theta Chi, another of the un-notified "fraters," that as a delegate he could not bind his chapter by the acts of the council until he should refer the resolutions back to his fraternity. Mr. Coufal then moved that, if Alpha Theta Chi's delegate be not so delegated, this fraternity should be debarred from a voice in the meeting. This motion was withdrawn after considerable discussion, and the original motion for the appointment of a committee passed. This committee was appointed as follows: Mr. Clark, Mr.

Beghtol, Mr. Zimmer, Mr. Coufal, and the chairman in accordance with the motion. Another motion to make the meeting secret was discussed and discouraged, as the chairman stated that there was nothing secret in the conference. The meeting then adjourned until eight o'clock Friday evening, after making arrangements with the editor of the Nebraskan, who happened in with Arthur Jorgensen, Hugh Craig, Berquist and others, for the publication of the resolutions in next Saturday morning's issue.

Just before adjournment one of the delegates, in speaking of the place for the next meeting, said that he thought they were imposing on the establishment as they never swept up after meetings.

The resolutions contemplated by the T. N. E.'s and their sympathizers are aimed at the fraternity men who signed the recent petition to the Senate asking for the abolition of the voting tax and who are now exerting their efforts in the interests of the University to get out a ticket composed of both "Barbs" and "Frat" men. The signers of this petition disavow any personal interest in the matter whatever. They are not coming back to school next year, and only desire to see the new rule given a chance without being discredited by the election of an all-"Barb" ticket. There have been several meetings of these men with prominent "Barbs" for the purpose of securing a University spirit in the matter and, although no particular ticket has been agreed upon, several fraternity men have been prevailed upon to enter the race on the fair plan of election. There have been repeated attempts on the part of the T. N. E.'s to discourage these candidates, but only one man, however, has withdrawn from the contest. It is probable that in an open T. N. E. matter the fraternities would rebel, but they now have little opportunity, as the plan was so cleverly made that the election will occur before the next regular meeting time.

The representatives from the various chapters at Tuesday evening's meeting were as follows:

- Phi Delta Theta—Dan McCutcheon.
- Delta Upsilon—"Chick" Clark.
- Delta Tau Delta—Dale Perrin.
- Sigma Chi—"Gussy" Zimmerer.
- Phi Gamma Delta—Sam Buck.
- Kappa Sigma—Glen Mason.
- Beta Theta Pi—K. D. Beghtol.
- Sigma Alpha—Web Mills.
- Alpha Tau Omega—Ed. Coufal.
- Alpha Theta Chi—Clarence Johnson.
- Phi Psi—H. W. Post.

Chancellor Andrews, when interviewed yesterday regarding the T. N. E.'s, stated that he thought the organization should be expelled from the institution, the only question being the best method of accomplishing this. He said: "You may quote me in saying that the Regents are back of me in this sentiment."

LAST PRODUCTION.

Dramatic Club to Give Final Plays Tonight.

Tonight the Dramatic Club will appear before the University public for the last time this season. The plan this year has been to get every member of the club to take an active interest in the work by placing them in one or more plays. Every appearance so far has met with marked success and there is no reason to expect that tonight's entertainment will fall below the usual standard. Several of the cast are on the Senior play this year and others have appeared in successful plays for the last two or three years. The plays tonight are "The Man of Destiny," "Holly Tree Inn," and "In Honor Bound."

The cast for the first is as follows: Napoleon Bonaparte...Aldis E. Hibner
A Strange Lady...Neva M. Hibner
A Lieutenant...Harry P. Letton
An Innkeeper...Samuel A. Erskine

The action of this play takes place on May 12, 1796, two days after the battle of Lodi, in which the French army under General Bonaparte repulsed the Austrian army under General Beaulien, who attempted to prevent the French from crossing by means of a narrow bridge at that point.

The scene is the main room at Giusseppe's inn, on the road from Milan to Lodi, in Northern Italy.

The following is the cast for "Holly Tree Inn:"

- Job Cobbs, Landlord of Holly Tree Inn...Allen (Pat) Murphy
- Captain Walmers, of Walmers Court...Aldis E. Hibner
- Harry Walmers, only son of Cap...

SENIOR HOLIDAY

ANNUAL OUTING AT MILFORD TAKES PLACE TODAY.

Large Number of Students on Hand Early for the Final Class Jollification of Fourth Year Students.

In accordance with the University custom, the members of the Senior class are taking their annual holiday today. Shortly before 7:30 this morning about one hundred and twenty or thirty of the knowledge stored students assembled at the Burlington depot to take the special train for the broad plains of Milford. No attempt was made to capture the president of the Junior class or any other outsider, the chief object of the Seniors being to reach the train themselves safely. The Glee Club went along to furnish music for the occasion.

The program for the day has not been definitely decided on, but one thing sure, dinner will be served at noon, as arrangements have been made with Dalrymple to have enough provisions brought out to feed an army of tramps. Three ball games will probably be played; the first between two boys' teams; the second between two girl teams, and the third to decide the championship. Besides these games, several kinds of races will be indulged in, such as potato race, peanut race, sack race, and a three-legged race. Those who enjoy rowing will have a splendid opportunity to indulge themselves in that line. Sometime in the afternoon a visit will be made to the Old Soldiers' Home and about an hour will be spent in sliding down the fire escapes. Many cameras were in evidence as the crowd assembled this morning. The train is expected back to Lincoln about six o'clock this evening.

OBER TALKS.

Field of the Young Men's Christian Association.

Last night, in the Temple Y. M. C. A. rooms, C. K. Ober, Field Secretary for the International Y. M. C. A., gave a good interesting talk on the work of the Y. M. C. A. and association work as a life work for college men to only an average sized audience.

The Y. M. C. A. has entered into many phases of life, such as army, navy, railroad, city and the latest move is into the industrial fields of the country. Owners of these industries realize the good of the work and are encouraging the Y. M. C. A. to come among them.

The Y. M. C. A. are in a large way solving the labor problems in the large cities, where so many young men from the smaller towns are rushing in. The saloon problem is finding its solution in the Y. M. C. A. in that the association is providing a place where conditions are elevating rather than demoralizing, the saloon substitute is the Y. M. C. A. for the young man.
