Clothes For Everybody

In Lincoln's Great Clothing Store, The Sterling, can be found something that will please every one. We have the "faddish" suits for the young men who always like to be the first to wear the extremes in the new styles, and we have a splendid stock of suits that appeals to men who do not value innovations and extremes in clothes but appreciate them for their REAL RICHNESS and WORTH.

If you buy your clothing here you will suit yourself in every particular as to style, fit, color, pattern and quality and YOU WILL ALWAYS BE A WELL-DRESSED MAN.

after college days. The purpose of this system is to train a body of students in methods of scientific investigation—where it means to go to the bottom of a question—a good thing for every undergraduate to do at least once in his course; but to grind up all the available evidence on a question prosecute original research, some of the results of which your representatives have published. The object of this system is to train students how to marshal matter rather than to jumble it, which any dunce can do—how to think and express the result of his thinking with lucidity, with exactness, and with power. The aim of this work is to kill out oratorical recitation; to kill out what Dean Pound used to call "extemporaneous "talk-ing." The object of this work has been and is to spread abroad here the conviction that debate is not a trade for talkers but the serious business of serious thinkers, of the best thinkers each succeeding class affords, to burn deep and broad the impression phrased by the poet laureate of the Nebraska debating system—Professor Ross, now of Wisconsin:
There was a young freshie from Lincoln
Thought debating as easy as winkin'.
But a week on the squad
Made him murmur, "Oh, Lawd,
I'm better at talkin' than thinkin'."
