sponded to the assessments fairly well, but the Freshmen and Sophomore classes have not yet bought many tickets. Today, from ten o'clock until six, these tickets will be on sale on the campus and it is up to members of all four classes to see that they have these in their possession. The scheme must have financial support and this is not now sufficiently in sight. Seniors who have paid their assessment can secure their tickets at these places of sale without further charge. Detailed programs, with copies of the class song, "Scarlet and Cream," and the cast of the play will be given out tomorrow morning. These should be kept all day. The day should be made a really worthy institution and should be thoroughly representative of the University, inasmuch as faculty members as well as students are expected to attend.
