Have you seen the Japanese cloisonne vase in the Uni. Book Store?
 Hawkeye Club.
 Tuesday evening the members of the Hawkeye Club were delightfully entertained at the home of Professor and Mrs. Barbour. One of the chief features of the evening was the guessing contest of Iowa's notable men from illustrations on cardboard. The prominent ones were Governor Cummins, Senators Dolliver and Allison, Congressmen Walter I. Smith and Peter Hepburn, Mr. Porter, recently Democratic candidate for governor; Secretary Shaw, Secretary Wilson, and Professor Barbour. A lively program was thoroughly enjoyed by all. The evening closed with rousing cheers of appreciation to Professor and Mrs. Barbour. A picnic will be held in Epworth Lake Park, Saturday afternoon, May 30.

CLASS PROGRAMS GOOD.

Enclosed by the judge to say no more about the "honor system;" to mark all Seniors present on "sneak day;" to forget all he ever knew about the French Revolution, Mirabeau and the Royal Session; to write a letter to the "Daily Nebraskan" explaining his presence there, that letter to be with outline and marginal references; and, pending the fulfillment of this sentence to be given leave of absence without pay.

The Senior play, "The Three Chateaus," was too late for this issue of the "Nebraskan" and comment on it will appear tomorrow.

The Purdue registrar has asked all students intending to change their course next year to complete arrangements for the change before the end of the present semester by consultation with him.
