Entered at the postoffice at Lincoln, Nebraska, as second-class mail matter under the Act of Congress of March 3, 1879.

Are you getting through your work two weeks before school is out? Then start a short session lasting until examination week is over. Make this your creed and also, do the deed.

The baseball trip was far from a failure. Manager Eager says the boys all kept straight. That is doing something toward representing Nebraska in addition to good work on the diamond.

The new Athletic Board is getting to work in good shape. The proposed three-dollar ticket ought to take well with the students, as this is an especially low rate for their benefit. The proposed revised constitution also indicates an interested and business-like attitude. Of course the summer baseball rule isn't what we can all agree

In view of some of the false impressions that have become prevalent as to the political selfishness of the fraternities, this declaration was most wise and should be carried out, T. N. E. to the contrary notwithstanding.

Y. W. C. A. Notices.

At the noon meeting Wednesday, from 11:50 to 12:10, the following program will be given:
Praise Service.

Vocal Solo..... Vera Upton
Piano Solo..... Miss Emerick
The last big cabinet meeting will be held at 6 p. m., Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. W. G. Houtz, 1038 South Twentieth street. A picnic lunch will be given and the advisory committee will be present.

No Extra Fees for Teachers.

In view of the fact that most or all intending teachers now in the College of Literature, Science and the Arts and in the Industrial College will naturally wish to enroll in the Teachers' College hereafter, it is believed that the Regents will make this change to the Teachers' College possible for such without the payment of any additional matriculation fee, such as is usually charged when a student changes from one college to another.

Y. M. C. A. Meeting.

The Y. M. C. A. meeting tonight in the Temple, from 6:50 to 7:30, will be of especial interest for two reasons: It is the last one of the year and it is to be led by Arthur Jorgensen, who graduates this spring and goes to the University of Wisconsin as general secretary of the Y. M. C. A.

These meetings have been growing in interest and attendance and it is the desire of the committee to have this last one be the best. Mr. Jorgensen always has something to say and knows how to say it in a pleasing and interesting manner.

SENIOR INVITATIONS

Seniors, did you notice that the order taken by the committee for paper invitations was cancelled? Orders for the new Yard-O Commencement invitations are taken at the University Book Store. Some deliveries already made. First in, first served.

Saturday Your LAST DAY to Order to, but if there must be such a rule in order to keep in line with other schools, let us have it enforced.

It is to be hoped that the recent disagreement among the fraternities in regard to the attitude which they should take on the new rules of election to the Athletic Board will furnish some lessons for the future. With so many of the national organizations of our fraternities opposed to the interfraternity, Theta Nu Epsilon, it is unfortunate that this organization should continue to wield the influence in college affairs that it does. As the matter has turned out, however, aside from some minor considerations, there was one thing upon which all the fraternities agreed and that was that no clique or organization should be permitted to dominate college activities.

Ladies' Baseball Nine.

The Faculty Club ladies' baseball nine organized and held their first practice recently. The feature of the practice was the exceptional slugging of Miss Lucas at opportune moments, one long drive to deep left field for a home run brought in seven scores, all the base-ladies joining in the procession for the home plate.—The I. S. C. Student.

Senior Invitations.

The first orders for the Senior commencement invitations, placed with the Yard-O Envelope Co., were delivered yesterday. This is a neat and new form of invitation and has all of the essentials of a beautiful invitation and souvenir. The invitation proper is on one page and the commencement week program is on another.
