CHALOUPKA DONS SUIT

BIG TACKLE MAKES HIS INITIAL APPEARANCE WITH SQUAD.

KROGER AND JOHNSON ON HAND

Will Join Cole's Promising Bunch in Practice at Antelope Park This Afternoon—Veterans Number Five.

Big "Bill" Chaloupka, the great right tackle of last year's Cornhuskers, joined "King" Cole's squad in practice at Antelope park yesterday afternoon. His appearance was the occasion for much rejoicing among the Nebraska students, for the husky tackle is expected to do some sensational playing this season that will win him a place on the All-Western eleven. Last year he was given a position on the second All-Western eleven by Walter Eckersall in the selection made by the former University of Chicago star for the Chicago Tribune. It had been feared for a while this summer that the injury to his wrist which he received in the St. Louis game Thanksgiving would keep big "Bill" out of the game. But the injured member has healed and is now as strong as it was before the Cornhuskers met St. Louis university.

Fullback Kroger and Right End Johnson also were on the campus and announced that they would report for practice today. With these two men out the total number of veterans will be five, Captain Harvey and Right Guard Frum having been at practice since it was started. Hugo Birkner, a fast back field man, is in the city and will probably join Cole's pupils today or tomorrow.

The gridiron training season was ushered in Tuesday afternoon at Antelope park under the direction of Head Coach Cole and his assistant, Ray Elliott. Fifteen candidates appeared for the initial practice and the time was spent in drilling them in passing and holding the ball. Captain Harvey and Right Guard Frum were the only veterans on the field that day. Frum limbered up his kicking leg and booted the spheroid over forty yards.

Ray Elliott, the new assistant coach, who succeeds Coach Peck, is a former Cornhusker football player. In 1898 he was a member of the Nebraska eleven which was coached by "Hurry Up" Yost who is now at Michigan directing the work of the Wolverines. He has been learning "King" Cole's methods of training, and next week when the squad becomes larger he will take charge of part of the candidates and drill them into shape for the head coach to pick out the best men among them.

Captain Charles Borg of the 1905 eleven will register for law work this semester and has announced that he will appear for practice. During his last year of the Cornhusker eleven Borg was rated as one of the best centers in the west and attracted the attention of Walter Camp and Casper Whitney. He is eligible for all the games on the Cornhusker schedule this fall with the exception of the Minnesota contest. In case Collins, who played center last season does return, as has been rumored will be the case, Borg will probably be stationed at that position.

All of the home games on the Nebraska schedule will be played at Antelope park this fall. The grandstand will be extended on the east end, additional bleachers erected, reserved seat boxes placed along the north side of the gridiron, and other arrangements made to handle the large crowds expected to attend the games this season.

The annual game with Ames will be played in Omaha at Dietz park on November 7. This game is looked forward to as the hardest struggle on the Nebraska schedule outside of the Minnesota game, and is expected to draw a large crowd of football enthusiasts to the metropolis of the state.

The first game of the fall will be played with the Peru normal school at Antelope park Saturday, September 26. Peru is likely to be an easy prey for the Cornhuskers, but the contest will give a good line on the form of the Cornhuskers and allow them to use the forward pass and other new plays without being in danger of losing seriously on fumbles or other mistakes.

SORORITIES GET MANY PLEDGES.

Rushing Season Comes to Close at University.

Rushing and pledging among the sororities of the University came to a close at six o'clock last evening with the number of girls pledged totaling forty-three. Pi Beta Phi and Delta Gamma each have eleven pledges, that being the highest number secured by any sorority. The pledges for the various sororities follow:

Alpha Chi Omega—Emma Franklin, Aurora; Mattie Yost, Harvard; Bethine Kennedy, Iowa, Iowa; Wilhelmina Comstock, Calhoun, Colorado; Ethel MacFarlane, Lincoln; Nell Whitmore, Valley; Beulah Jennings, Davenport; Hazel Clark, Lincoln.

Alpha Omicron Pi—Mabel Salmon, Omaha; Martha Bell, Pittsburg, Pa.;

MOVE CLOSER TO UNIVERSITY.

Many Greek Letter Societies Change Their Residences.

This fall finds many of the Nebraska fraternity and sorority chapters living nearer the university campus than they did last year. During the summer one of the fraternities bought a new home and several of the other Greek letter societies rented houses that were not occupied by them a year ago. There are now eleven chapter houses within a radius of six blocks of the school. Four of these, Phi Gamma Delta, Pi Beta Phi, Delta Tau Delta, and Alpha Theta Chi, are located on R street within three blocks of the state institution. Kappa Alpha Theta remain at their old location, 423 North Thirteenth street, being in the same block with the Phi Gamma Delta house. On S street there are also four Greek

HAS BEEN VERY GOOD

SALE OF NEW ATHLETIC TICKETS LARGE SINCE TUESDAY.

ADMISSION TO CONTEST CHEAP

Football Games This Fall Will Cost Only Fifteen Cents Apiece Under the New Plan Being Tried Now.

The sale of student and faculty athletic tickets has been very large since Tuesday morning, when the new admission books were placed at the counters of the University book stores and given to several of the football men to sell. Manager Eager is hopeful that enough of them will be disposed of before the Doane game to insure the success of the new plan of giving the University students cheap admission to all the athletic contests of the year. He said yesterday he expected to have over half of his supply sold before the middle of next week.

The price of the new student and faculty athletic books is $3. These books are not transferrable, and only one of them can be purchased by each student. They admit the holder to all the home athletic contests played by the various Cornhusker athletic teams. These include the football, baseball, basketball and track contests.

It is figured that at least one thousand of these books will need to be sold in order to make the plan a success. In past years the major part of the receipts from the Lincoln games have been paid by the student body. If the students under the new system, which reduces the sum received from them several per cent, fail to buy the necessary number of tickets, the new plan will have to be abandoned and the old one of charging for football and the other sports separately will be taken up. These new tickets are sold only to undergraduates, alumni and faculty members of the University of Nebraska.

The plan of selling a student's ticket similar to the one now on sale at Nebraska has been tried at several universities, including Wisconsin, Kansas and Purdue, and has proved a great benefit to the athletic management and the students, as well. The managers of these schools have written Manager Eager explaining how well the system has worked at their institutions. They claim that after the students realized they were getting into all of the athletic contests at an exceedingly low price that they bought tickets without asking any questions. At one of the schools the second year after the new plan was adopted nearly all of the tickets were sold during the week of registration in the fall.

Manager Eager has figured out that by purchasing a student book this fall for $3 the home football games will cost each student who attends them only fifteen cents apiece. Until this fall a season football ticket alone sold for either $3 or $3.50. Now with a coupon ticket the student can attend every basketball game during the winter and the baseball and track contests in the spring in addition to the football games, for just $3.

If the desired number of tickets are sold this fall Manager Eager will bring several more basketball and baseball teams here for games than would otherwise be possible with the present state of the Cornhusker finances. He says he will have five or six intercollegiate diamond contests here and eight or ten basketball games. Both Yale and Chicago will send basketball teams on short western trips this winter, and one of these teams will be secured for a game here with Nebraska. A large sale of the student tickets will allow the Cornhusker students to have many other treats before the close of the athletic season.

The tickets are being sold to girls as well as to boys. Manager Eager is desirous of having the co-eds learn that they are expected to attend the football games and other contests this year even though they have no escorts. A special girls' section will be erected at Antelope park for the football contests, and the "single"

THREE PEOPLE INTERESTED IN CORNHUSKER FOOTBALL

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Cole and Manager Earl O. Eager caught by the camera at the Burlington Station Tuesday Morning upon the arrival of the Nebraska Coach and his bride from the east. "King" Cole is the central figure of the group. He is a benedict of but 12 days, having been married Sept. 6.

Gazella Birkner, Lincoln; Lorene Emery, Lincoln.

Alpha Phi—Hazel Johnson, Pawnee City; Isabel Milroy, Omaha; Margaret Randall, Newman Grove; Ruth Haller, Omaha; Adeline Schuler, Carthage, Mo.

Chi Omega—Lorine Hayden, Lincoln; Mildred Piper, Lyons.

Delta Delta Delta—Helen Densmore, Lincoln; Jannet Stephenson, Lincoln; Edith Flock, Blair; Elizabeth Barnell, Lincoln; Clare Reefer, Lincoln.

Delta Gamma—Kitty Mockett, Lincoln; Bess Gould, Omaha; Marguerite Klinker, Lincoln; Marjorie Selleck, Lincoln; Evah May Gallentine, Kearney; Marguerite Stewart, Beatrice; Carrie Rinaker, Beatrice; Hazel Fall, Beatrice; Emma Lou Harnsberger, Ashland; Florence Wells, Schuyler; Lucile June Harris, Stella.

Kappa Alpha Theta—Louise Barr, Lincoln; Fay Berninger, Grand Island; Olive Hammond, Omaha.

Kappa Kappa Gamma—Dorris Wood, Omaha; Ann Dennis, Omaha; Alice

Registration began with a rush Tuesday morning and up to date has given every indication of being record breaking in size. The total registered up to the present time shows an increase of nearly forty per cent over the number registered on the same days in either 1906 or 1907.

Registration was somewhat delayed by the fact that the calendar was not received from the printer as early as was expected. This was caused by the extra work involved by the addition of the school of pharmacy, the teacher's college and the six year engineering courses. Next year the calendar and a permanent schedule will be issued before the close of the spring semester. Registration will thus be much simplified.

Registrar Harrison has adopted one new feature in registering which promises to eliminate much labor in the office without imposing an added burden upon the students. Instead of being required to return registration slips to the office for checking, each letter houses, namely Delta Delta Delta, Delta Upsilon, Phi Kappa Psi, and Phi Delta Theta. Sigma Chi are only a short distance from these houses, being at 518 North Sixteenth street. Delta Gamma occupy the house they had last year at 1401 Q street. Beta Theta Pi have rented the house in which the Phi Kappa Psi lived last year.

Alpha Tau Omega are located at 2732 O street but are looking for another house and will occupy their present residence only temporarily. Alpha Phi live in the house formerly occupied by Alpha Tau Omega at 126 North Twenty-sixth street. Phi Kappa Psi are not occupying their new home. They purchased a residence at 511 North Sixteenth street and are remodeling it and will move into it before Thanksgiving. A new home erected at 345 North Thirteenth street has been rented by Phi Beta Phi, and they began moving into it yesterday.
