BIG POT-PIE SUPPER

ANNUAL Y. M. C. A. FEED COMES SATURDAY AT ST. PAUL'S.

DR. PAYNE TO DO THE COOKING

Chicken Pie, Roast Potatoes, Gravy, Hot Biscuits, Coffee and Other Appetizing Viands to Be Served By Boys.

Chicken pot pie, roast potatoes, gravy, hot biscuits, and other things too numerous to mention, prepared with the skill of a French chef, await those who attend the annual Y. M. C. A. pot-pie supper, Saturday night October 17, in the dining room of St. Paul's M. E. church. That chicken pie—it would require volumes to properly describe. There is just one flavor, just one crust and that is the pie which Dr. Payne has made for the Y. M. C. A. at the annual suppers for the past several years. It is often said that a boy is easiest reached through his stomach. Perhaps that explains why the university boys have such a warm spot in their hearts for Dr. Payne, perhaps it don't but one fact remains and that is all of the fellows have a warm regard for Mr. Payne and his chicken pies.

Spuds with skins on, baked to a turn—what more could one wish for. Under the careful watch of Chef Payne and his corps of assistants they come out soft and mealy and exceedingly appetizing. Flooded in brown gravy, also prepared by Mr. Payne they bring back the recollections of home, and mother's cooking. Then there are the hot biscuits, the coffee, and all those little accompaniments which go to make up a square meal. No one knows, no one can appreciate what a Y. M. C. A. supper, cooked by Dr. Payne means until he has attended one himself. It is safe to say then, that he will not need to be urged to go the following year.

Eat All You Please.

Have you ever sat down to a meal where the waiter would bring in a bit of that and a bit of this? No danger of that at the Y. M. C. A. supper. There is more than enough for all, there are a bunch of fellows who are there for the purpose of waiting on you, so it is up to you to eat until your heart's content. Within one moment after the signal is given, every one of the four or five hundred students who annually attend the supper are served. Fifty boys care for the tables while twenty others assist in the kitchen in dishing out potatoes, corn, chicken, meat and various dainties. It is so carefully planned that everything goes off without disturbance.

Selections by a male quartet, and speeches by prominent members of the Y. M. C. A. will follow the supper. With president E. W. Hills, Joe De Kindren and Professor Condra, it is certain that the speaking end of the program will be well looked after. And perhaps Dr. Payne can be induced to render that little song which he gave last year, "No One Works But Father." It is very probable that some Y. M. C. A. speakers of national repute will be secured to address the meeting.

For the Y. M. C. A.

One feature of the supper in past years has not been mentioned and that is, that the suppers have never been a financial success. They are not given for a financial purpose but rather by the social committee of the Y. M. C. A., of which George W. Wallace is chairman, and S. P. Dobbs and Harry Hill assistants. Heretofore the suppers have always cost the Y. M. C. A. from ten to twenty dollars, but the committee has decided to make no change in the price of the supper, so that it will be the same as in previous years, twenty cents.

Following the supper it is probable that subscriptions will be taken of those who desire to assist the Y. M. C. A. The finance committee takes this means of raising the funds each year, rather than resorting to a personal canvass among the students, preferring that the subscriptions should be entirely voluntary. It should be remembered by every one that the subscription is entirely voluntary and the supper is given primarily to bring students of the university together. It is a place for first year men and upper classmen to meet—an excellent chance for the freshmen to learn the ways of the university men.

FIRST DINNER FOR FACULTY.

To Be Held at Lincoln Hotel Next Friday Evening.

At 7:00 p. m., next Friday there will occur the first of a series of faculty dinners. The members of the university faculty will meet at the Lincoln hotel and will there enjoy a delectable meal and a period of general sociability.

For some time numerous members of the faculty have felt that the strenuous university life threatened to make serious inroads upon their social instinct. Many of the faculty know each other only slightly, or only by name, or not at all. It is therefore deemed desirable to afford a few opportunities during the year to cultivate the social spirit.

Last spring a movement was started to organize a university faculty club, but owing to the difficulty of securing commodious and suitable quarters, the scheme had to be abandoned. The readiness with which the various professors and instructors have taken up the "dinner" plan shows how greatly in need of the social element they feel themselves. Some seventy have already signified their intention to attend the first dinner at the Lincoln, Friday evening.

Fire at Illinois.

Fire broke out in the top floor of the Main Hall of the University of Illinois Friday evening and for a time threatened destruction of the building. It seems to have caught just under the stairs on the fourth floor and gained considerable headway before the alarm was sounded. A quick response was made by the department and effective work was begun at once. At twelve o'clock the fire was completely under control and later was extinguished entirely.

The greatest damage has come from water, although Adelpic hall and the engineering drawing rooms are very badly hurt by the flames. The water turned on wherever possible, ruined books and equipment on all floors. On the west side is the damage especially great and the basement is literally full of water. Members of three fire departments, professors, students and townsmen worked faithfully during the trouble and carried many articles of value from the water-soaked building.

Junior Informal at Temple.

One week from next Saturday the junior class will hold an informal dance at the Temple. Freshmen and sophomores are especially invited to come out and meet the upper classmen. The dance will be given at the popular price of 75 cents per couple. The committee in charge consists of: W. H. Burleigh, Miss Eunice Bauman, Miss Esther Bailey, J. G. Trude, S. C. Slaughter, H. W. Potter.

PLAYERS CONTINUE BRILLIANT WORK IN PRACTICE.

CHANCES BRIGHT FOR VICTORY

Final Scrimmage Before Minnesota Game Shows the Varsity Prepared to Defeat the Gophers on Northrup Field.

For the last time until they meet the Gophers next Saturday the football squad lined up for scrimmage last evening at Antelope park. They renewed the fierce play which characterized their work Tuesday, and from their showing last night it is safe to predict that the two or three hundred rooters who are to make the trip to Minneapolis will not return disappointed. Every year since 1902 the hopes of the Cornhuskers have risen and fallen with the coming and going of the Minnesota game, but this year as never before the men are filled with the confidence and determination which forbid the possibility of defeat. They intend that for the first time in six years the Minnesota braves shall be scalped on their own battle-ground and it is the sole aim and desire of every player who is making the trip to do his utmost toward accomplishing this end. In addition to the confidence which the players have in themselves they are encouraged by feeling that the earnest moral support of the entire student body is behind them and that on Saturday afternoon those who have not found it possible for a loss before he could get started. The scrubs attempted another forward pass on the next down but it resulted in a fumble and Temple grabbed the ball and ran for a touchdown.

The varsity kicked off to Bowers, who fumbled and Frum fell on the ball for the varsity. Bentley made 15 yards on a quarter back run around right end. Birkner and Chaloupka failed to gain and a forward pass by the varsity struck the ground. However, Coach Cole declared that Frank had stiff-armed Captain Harvey who was to have received the pass, and allowed the varsity to retain the ball. Two line bucks netted six yards for the varsity and a quarter back play failed to gain.

At this point Slaughter went in at right half for Birkner and on the first play the varsity fumbled, but recovered without any gain. However, they had failed to make the required distance and the scrubs took the ball.

A forward pass to Chauner netted twenty yards, but on the next play Hascall was thrown for a loss of five yards. A forward pass failed to work and the ball went to the varsity on their own 50 yard line.

A forward pass to Harvey resulted in a 20 yard gain and Sturtznegger followed with eight more off right tackle. Slaughter made 10 yards on a line buck, but Sturtznegger was thrown for a loss. Cooke went in at quarter and sent Minor around right end for 10 yards. Sturtznegger and Chaloupka each made five and Stutz added three more through center. Minor went over for a touchdown.

Minnesota Formations.

For a few moments the coaches drilled the varsity in special defense for Minnesota formations which were being used by the scrubs. Assistant Coach Elliott was in Minneapolis last Saturday and watched the Gophers play against the Ames "soil ticklers." He thinks the Cornhuskers have an even chance to beat Minnesota and

CHANCELLOR'S SEND-OFF TO CORNHUSKERS.

To the team:

Boys you represent Uni.—all whom you leave behind. Our hearts are with you. Uni expects every mother's son of you to do his best. Play the game hard, hard from start to finish; only play it square. Be gentlemen every minute you are away. Get into the game the first trembling of a second. Keep cool. Be fast. Work together. Stay with the game till it ends. And may it end to your glory!

E. BENJ. ANDREWS.

to make the trip and attend the game in person, will be congregated about the bulletin boards at home waiting eagerly for the glad tidings of a Cornhusker victory. There is not a person in school who will not send his best wishes with the team tonight and there is not a heart in Lincoln which will not beat joyfully on Saturday if "King" Cole's pupils are able to demonstrate Nebraska's supremacy in that great contest.

Hard Scrimmage.

The scrimmage work last night was a reproduction of the excellent showing made Tuesday evening. The varsity's play was characterized by fierceness and speed and the yells of "King" Cole, "That's more like it" and "Now you're playing ball" were heard with greater frequency. The coach at last has apparently succeeded in inoculating the team with some of his speed, fire and enthusiasm and the working of the squad the last night or two recalls to the minds of the rooters the days of 1902, when Nebraska was wont to finish the season with a clean slate.

The varsity kicked to the scrubs at the beginning of the scrimmage and one of the regulars fell on the ball at the scrubs' 45 yard line. On the first down Birkner, following almost perfect interference, made twenty yards around left end. A forward pass to Captain Harvey netted twelve more, but on the next play, a fake line buck, the varsity fumbled and the scrubs secured the ball.

The scrubs attempted a forward pass, but Sid Collins threw the man this week has been drilling his scrubs in Minnesota formations against the varsity. At first the scrubs made gains on them, but later the varsity men were able to break up the plays effectually.

After this the varsity was given the ball again and Frum, Sturtznegger, Cooke, Chaloupka and Minor alternated at making good gains. Sturtznegger went over for a touchdown and the varsity was given the ball on their own 15 yard line and 10 plays in which to make a touchdown. Birkner punted forty yards and out of bounds. The scrubs made 5 yards on a delayed pass. Slaughter, who was transferred to the scrubs made 10 yards around left end, but fumbled. Gibson, recovered for the scrubs, but on the next play, a forward pass, Cooke secured the ball. Birkner made 15 through center and Cooke added 12 more on a quarter back run. Minor got five around right end and Bill Chaloupka made 8 yards through left tackle. The varsity lost the ball on a fumble to Chauner who made 25 yards. A forward pass to Gibson netted twenty yards and the scrubs failed to work an inside kick.

BANQUET BIG AFFAIR

AUDITORIUM TO BE FILLED WITH EDUCATORS.

OVERFLOW MEETING IS LIKELY

Professor Condra Enthusiastic Over Spirit of Nebraska Graduates—Room Lacking For Those Wishing Tickets.

The Union School Banquet to be held in the Auditorium promises to be one of the biggest events in educational circles that has ever taken place in the state. In fact, if present indications are to be taken as of any value, it will surpass any similar political gathering both in size and enthusiasm.

The banquet will be held in the Auditorium on the evening of November 4. Every square inch of space will be filled with tables, and it now looks as though a large overflow meeting could be held somewhere else. The banquet capacity of the Auditorium is under 1,000 and already about 1,300 have signified their intention of being present.

McBrien as Toastmaster.

The leading officials on this occasion will be State Superintendent J. L. McBrien, toastmaster, and Mr. W. K. Fowler, master of ceremonies. The total number of plates has been divided up among the colleges of the state, and each institution has its alumni procure tickets from it. Alumni and undergraduates actively engaged in public school teaching in Nebraska are offered first opportunity to secure plates, second opportunity being given to present students and faculty.

Cannot All Attend.

Originally the University of Nebraska was allowed 200 plates, but this number has now been cut to 175. This will make it impossible for all the alumni who wish to be with the Nebraska bunch to attend. Professor Condra, who has charge of the arrangements for the University of Nebraska, declares that the replies which he has received from graduates show the greatest enthusiasm.

Much Enthusiasm Shown.

One letter just received is typical of the feeling exhibited by all the alumni. It is as follows: "Your letter about reserving a plate with the university gang of howlers, singers and banquetters is at hand, and I want to be with them of course. The enclosed dollar will secure me a plate, I trust, and if a knife and fork, teaspoon and tin cup, and such like cost extra, I'll settle the bill when I get up there, or if they are short on them, I'll bring along my pocket knife and use it. The only stunt I can promise is an appetite as ravenous as a coyote. Hurra for the scarlet and cream."

Stunts Prepared For.

The "howlers, singers and banquetters" will be there and everyone will know that the University of Nebraska is still alive. The banquet will be held on election night, and the results will be announced in the hall during the course of the banquet. Professor Condra expects to have the teachers of the state in good form for the occasion and has cautioned them as follows:

"Don't fall to work out for this occasion. If you think of an appropriate stunt, let us have it."
