The third year law students have not been handling in their cases as fast as the professors desire and it is considered advisable that some of the cases be hurried in.

It is intended Saturday to perfect a further organization of the practice courts in the law school. The justice courts have not yet been organized and they will be formed soon.

The Cornhusker editors in giving out a list of the staff appointments for the annual, Tuesday, omitted the name of Vally White. It should have been included with the 1910 assistants.

Albert Aron, one of last year's fellows in the German department, has a fellowship in the University of Wisconsin. He writes that he is exceedingly well pleased with the Badger institution.

George Wendover, ex-1910, was in Lincoln yesterday on business. Mr. Wendover may conclude to enter school the second semester. He is taking examinations to enter the government hospital service.

All loyal students are going to wear scarlet and cream colors and carry a megaphone to the Burlington depot this afternoon to make the Nebraska team feel that the entire school is behind them in this great struggle against Minnesota.

The Union Literary society has voted unanimously to grant the use of their hall for the Nebraska Teachers' association meeting. This action was taken because of the need of rooms by the teachers' association and a desire to accommodate the teachers, many of whom are old Unions.

Some of the students who are going to Minnesota with the excursion tomorrow evening, are trying to charter a sleeping car which they intend to occupy on the trip to and while in Minneapolis. This scheme will save them their bills at the hotels for lodging and will enable them to make the trip a comparatively inexpensive one. The cost to each man for a berth in the sleeper will be $1.85. The boys who are getting up the enterprise live at 1208 S street across from the gymnasium where they may be seen between the hours of 11:00 and 1:00 today.

Freshmen and sophs at Michigan had quite a number of "scraps" early Wednesday morning, the sophomores being the victors in the long run. The freshmen were painted, and after having a flashlight picture taken of the bunch, were ducked in a large tank near the campus. The class hostilities were called off Thursday night in order to give the students a rest preparatory to the final struggle on Friday night.

KANSAS FRESHMEN TOO FRESH.

Upper Classmen Will Enforce Rules to Hold Down New Ones.

That the K. U. freshmen are becoming too fresh seems to be the conclusion arrived at by the upper classmen of the university. At a mass meeting of the older students last week a set of ten rules was adopted, which they say will be rigidly enforced. Chancellor Strong, in a statement concerning the rules said: "If the upper classmen are in earnest and will play fair and not allow it to run into petty persecution, I should think the plan might be a good thing. But it must be perfectly open and in the hands of responsible upper classmen."

The rules adopted are as follows: Be it hereby decreed and ordained that from this day and date all freshmen be compelled to live up to the following rules and regulations, as prescribed by the council of upper-classmen of the University of Kansas, to-wit:

Rule 1: After October 15, every freshman shall wear a light green skull cap with a bright red button not less than 1 1-2 inches in diameter, every day in the week except Sunday.
 Rule 2: The use of tobacco in any form is absolutely forbidden on the campus.
 Rule 3: Freshmen shall tip their hats to faculty members, touch their caps to seniors, give up their seats and make room for upper classmen on every occasion.

Rule 4. All freshmen must attend chapel every day and sit in the gallery.

Rule 5. High school pins will not be tolerated on the person of any freshman.

Rule 6. Freshmen must attend all student celebrations.

Rule 7. Freshmen are supposed to be in their rooms by 10:30 o'clock, p. m.

Rule 8. Freshmen flunkers will be called up before the student council and dealt with in a severe and effective manner.

Rule 9. No freshman must be seen in the company of a co-ed on the campus.

Rule 10. Freshmen are warned to conduct themselves in a meek and unassuming manner, as befits one of their station.

The student council of upper classmen has unlimited power to inflict punishment on any violator of the above rules.

The Daily Minnesotan staff has accepted the challenge of the Gopher-Mag. people to a football game to be played in the near future. If Northrop Field can be secured it will be the scene of the conflict. The Dailies will make known their terms soon. The football game between the two sets of scribes bids fair to become an annual affair. Last year the Gopher-Mag's wrested the victory from the Daily men after a most exciting game.
