KIRK HAS WATER-ON THE KNEE

Hurt Again Monday and Daily "Bakings" Necessary to Get Him in Shape for the Nebraska Game.

Wisconsin.
 Madison, Wis., Oct. 22.—Coach Barry made several important changes in the Wisconsin varsity line-up tonight. He placed Osthoff, the varsity strong man, at right end in place of "Jimmy" Dean, who has been stationed there up to the present. Osthoff has been at right tackle. The coach has also shifted ex-Captain Messmer from his old position at left guard to right tackle.

From the reports brought back from Champaign by Dr. Hutchins the left side of Marquette's line is the stronger. The work of Foley, left end on Juneau's eleven, has been such as to cause anxiety on the part of the varsity coach, and it is thought that Osthoff will be placed there to take care of him. Takisch has been put in Messmer's old place. Coach Barry gave the team two solid hours of signal work tonight.

Sidney Anderson of Chicago was tonight elected captain of the freshman team. He plays at quarter back, and is one of the few real stars on the first year team.

Grinnell.
 Grinnell, Ia., Oct. 22.—Grinnell is ablaze with enthusiasm. A great mass-meeting was held tonight and feeling runs high over the prospects against Drake. Out at Ward field the enthusiasm was at its highest pitch. The varsity, in the final practice before the Drake game, ran all over the scrubs amid the cheers of hundreds of rooters. Alumni coaches from all over the country scurried about busily assisting Coach Andrews in putting the finishing touches on the team. The varsity scored easily in five minutes of scrimmage, Bair going over. On defense the varsity did well, holding the scrubs repeatedly. Flanagan was the only man hurt.

Illinois.
 Champaign, Ill., Oct. 22.—Fearing that the Illini players are inclined to discount Indiana, Illinois coaches today warned the locals that the hoosiers would be no snap a week from Saturday. Between a fear of over-confidence and of having the eleven go stale after having been keyed up for the Chicago game the coaches are worried. Verne Purnell will not be seen in an Illinois uniform after this fall, as he has been appointed to West Point and will report at the military academy next year. Purnell played his first varsity game against Chicago and did well.

Harvard.
 Cambridge, Mass., Oct. 22.—After an afternoon of light practice, the Harvard football squad left tonight for Annapolis, where the crimson and midshipmen will play Saturday. There will be an opportunity tomorrow for practice in Baltimore, where the Cambridge players will remain until they go to Annapolis, Saturday.

The following men were in the squad: Captain Burr, Browne, Crowley, Corbett, Cutting, Dunlap, Fish, Forschler, Galath, Gray, Hadden, Harding, Hoar, Houston, Jowett, Kennard, Leslie, Long, McKay, McGuire, Nourse, Robinson, Smith, Ver Wiebe, White and Withington.

The team will be back in Boston Monday early enough to practice in the afternoon. Smith was today subjected to a careful examination, and it was found his injured knee is not badly damaged.

Michigan.
 Ann Arbor, Mich., Oct. 22.—On the eve of the Michigan team's departure for Columbus 5,000 students are confident for the first time that their eleven is to romp away with the enemy. This confidence was strengthened this afternoon when it was learned that Captain Adolf G. Schulz had passed that irritating "con" exam, and that the all-American center would be in the fourth game of the Michigan schedule.
 The big Teuton with a "con" in the hardest subject in his department has been burning the oil while his team mates went through three contests. Naturally he is eager for the fray and if the gipping attack he made against the scrubs is a harbinger of what is to happen the Ohioans will know that they are up against Walt Camp's selection for the pivot.

Eighteen men, two less than Notre Dame brought up here, will make the trip to the Ohio capital tomorrow morning. The squad will arrive in Columbus to-morrow noon and will spend the afternoon on the university field, being given the courtesy of a secret practice.

Trainer Fitzpatrick says that all of the men are in excellent condition and ready for the best game that they have played this season. Yost, although he wouldn't admit it, is in most joyful spirits and expects to show his old pupil, Herrenstein, a few tricks that the Ohio coach has not yet learned.

Chicago.
 Chicago, Oct. 22.—Coach Yost of Michigan will send his strongest team against Ohio state university tomorrow. This will be the first time this season that the Wolverines had their entire strength in a game, and the showing of the team in this battle will be watched with interest.

The Buckeyes this year are coached by Herrenstein, a former Michigan half, and reports have it they are a stronger aggregation and it will take the best Michigan has to win. In former years the Ohioans have given Yost's team hard games, losing by small scores. With the Michigans not as strong as in the past, Herrenstein's team will give them a stiff game.

With "Germany" Schulz in the game for the first time this year and Casey back in his old position at tackle, Michigan will present a formidable line. Yost also has been drilling the squad in the possibilities of the forward pass all week, and this play will be an important factor in the offense.

Yost Resorts to Strategy.
 Yost has finally come to the conclusion that his team cannot gain ground consistently with old plays as was the case with his great teams, and he must resort to strategy and open plays to successfully cope with opponents. Michigan used the old attack in most all its games this year, with the result that it did not prove advantageous, the clever kicking of Allerdice being a big factor in deciding the contests.

The Wolverines always have been fortunate in having a good man who could kick goals from the field, the famous Weeks-Sweeney combination being nearly as strong as Clark and Hershberger, the Chicago pair. After Sweeley graduated from college Tom Hammond took his place and lifted the ball over the posts for numerous scores. Then Graham came along and did good work in this department. This year Allerdice has followed in his predecessors' paths and bids to outdo even their best achievements.

Iowa.
 Iowa City, Ia., Oct. 22.—Military exercises were given to the Iowa football squad by Coach Catlin last night in the form of "setting-up" stunts, and the men were thoroughly fatigued at the close of the West Point tactics. The whole squad, even to the heaviest linemen, were stretched flat on the gridiron while Coaches Catlin and Griffith directed them in the soldier callisthenics until the husky pupils were tired and much more limber than when they started.

The find of the practice was Haggerty, a new candidate for right half. Fee, who has been substituting for Captain Kirk, has water on the knee, leaving the varsity position vacant, as Kirk was again hurt Monday, and daily "bakings" of the leg will be necessary to get him in shape for the Nebraska game.

Limitations have been put upon the number of offices that may be held by one man in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Every office now has a definite number of points ascribed to it, and when a man has accumulated ten points he is not eligible for further honors. The class of 1910 offered many objections to the plan, but has finally accepted it. The aim of the scheme is to distribute more widely the labor of undergraduate affairs.

LIBRARIANS OF STATE MET FOR ANNUAL CONFERENCE.

DR. FLING SPEAKS AT MEETING

Many Technical Papers Read and Practical Demonstration Given of Library Methods for Small Libraries.

The most successful meeting which the state library association has ever held took place last week at Hastings. Dr. Jewett, president of the association during the past year, was present at the meetings together with Miss Compton, the assistant librarian and Miss Craig, the reference librarian. The association was in session on October 20 and 21.

Dr. Jewett declares that the meetings were more largely attended than any others which the association has ever held. The attendance was unusually representative, as not only the thickly populated eastern counties but even the sparsely populated territory in the western part of the state had representatives. Probably the most distant librarian who undertook the journey was the librarian of Chadron. The number of librarians present totaled fifty-three.

Most of the time during the meetings was taken up by the reading of technical papers on matters of interest only to librarians. Miss Craig read a paper on library legislation. One of the most interesting things attempted at the meetings was a demonstration of library methods for the benefit of the librarians from smaller cities.

The main address of the meetings was delivered by Professor Fling of the University of Nebraska on the subject, "Our Place in History." The paper was a very scholarly discussion of the subject and proved to be very interesting. The meeting at which Dr. Fling spoke was thrown open to the public and the people of the town showed their appreciation of the opportunity of hearing him speak by turning out in large numbers.

Dr. Jewett has been president of the association during the past year. Miss Charlotte Templeton, a graduate of the university, was elected to succeed him.

CO-EDS WILL NOT STAND FOR IT.

Missouri Girls Don't Like To Be Called Painters.

At the University of Missouri one dark night not long ago four freshman girls painted "co-eds" on the baseball back stop. By morning the engineers had repainted the sign to "Eng. 12." Saturday morning at 9 o'clock four more girls repainted the sign "Co-Eds. 12" in very conspicuous letters. Pictures of these girls were taken for the Savitar and Missourian.

The following bitter account of the incident appeared recently in the Independent:

"In defense of the university girls at large, who feel keenly the reflection cast on them by this act, we state that the girls who figured in this were freshmen, which is partly explanatory that such a thing could be done at all. Why have any girls such a perverted idea of glory that they wish to seek notoriety in this way? It is no victory. The sign would not stand; were it not for the gallantry of the men. The spirit was that of fun but from a serious side it holds the university women up to criticism of 'rough-neckism.' Yes! 'This is the first time the girls have so asserted themselves.' May it be the last!"

"FRANCIS SMITH,
 "Girls' Editor."

The Illinois students at the University of Missouri have organized an "Illini" club. The object of the club is to promote the interests of the University of Missouri in Illinois, and to promote the social relations of the members. There are over forty residents of Illinois at present attending the University of Missouri, which is probably the largest delegation from any other state outside of Missouri.

The rules of the combined lit-law course at Michigan have been stiffened up. Lit students whose records are poor will be denied admittance to the course and those whose work is not of the best grade will be accepted on probation.
