IOWA MORE CONFIDENT

SHOWING AGAINST MORNINGSIDE INSTILLS STRONG SPIRIT.

CAPTAIN KIRK GROWING BETTER

"Ghost" Ball Likely To Be Used by Coach Catlin This Week if Weather Permits—Other Football Gossip.

(Special to Daily Nebraskan.)

IOWA CITY, Ia., Oct. 26—Confidence in the ability of the Hawkeyes to play a hard game against Nebraska next Saturday is growing here since the Morningside game. The fact that none of the star players were hurt in that contest, along with Captain Kirk's improvement, have caused the undergraduates to regain the faith lost over the Missouri defeat.

To get the right mental attitude in the players is the ambition of the coaches. Assistant Coach Griffith took charge of the squad today as Head Coach Catlin stopped at his mother-in-law's home at Sloan, Ia., before returning to Iowa City. Determination to fight an uphill game against the strong Cornhusker team is the spirit which the coaches will endeavor to instill this week.

If the weather permits Coach Catlin will bring the "ghost" ball into play for the first time this year. In all probability if the wet weather keeps up signal practice in the gymnasium will be given the players. Chalk talks in Unity hall will also be given the men during the week.

Trainer Tommy O'Brien is pleased over the condition of the men and the way they stood the hard trip to Morningside. He predicts that they will be in tip top shape for the Nebraska game, barring accidents in scrimmage this week.

Recognition in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Nebraska downed that always dangerous bunch, the Haskell Indians, and proved that it is one of the most powerful straight football elevens in the west to-day.—Chicago Record-Herald.

Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Oct. 25.—Coach Barry has a hard week's work cut out for the Wisconsin football team. He is anxious to prevent the Marquette team from scoring on the badgers next Saturday, and will devote much of his time to training the defense. The Milwaukee team has been showing up so strong this season that Coach Barry is considerably worried over the coming game.

Boyle, the crack tackle, is under the weather and may be out of the Marquette game. If he fails to recover Oathoff, the strong man, will have to be taken from right end and placed in his position. This will require the reinstatement of Jimmy Dean at right end. Jack Wilce, full back, and Waldo Muckleston, right half back, are limping around with bad ankles, and Moll, quarter back, is far from being in good physical condition. Coach Barry said tonight that he would have to give the squad the hardest possible work from now on. The plan of developing two good sets of backs for the team has not turned out well so far, but the coach says he thinks he can develop a good second set before the Minnesota and Chicago games.

Michigan.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Oct. 26.—The Michigan team returned to Ann Arbor tonight from Columbus, after spending the afternoon at Toledo. Owing to the fact that it was Sunday, but a small crowd was at the depot to meet the players and there was little excitement. The men all are in pretty good shape, although Schulz was battered up.

When asked about the game with Ohio state Coach Yost said: "I am satisfied with the result of the game, but not entirely so with the playing. Some shifts will be made in the line-up after Watkins gets in again, but that may not be for a long time."

You can't make many changes in a squad of only eleven or twelve men."

Illinois.

URBANA, Ill., Oct. 25.—Illinois will begin work tomorrow to get ready for Indiana next Saturday. The hoosier game is the first conference contest to be played on Illinois field. Local "dopesters" will not be surprised to see a tight game, as word comes that Indiana is greatly improved and is lying in ambush for the Illini.

Pettigrew returned yesterday from a week's absence on an engineering trip, and tomorrow will take his place at right half back again.

Eaton had the post yesterday, while Gumm and Bradley were the sub half backs. Butzer was tried out as sub center, and seems to be a general utility man. The coaches were fairly well satisfied with the showing against the freshmen, but harder work is the order since cold weather has arrived.

Northwestern.

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—Northwestern football players were greatly encouraged by their showing against the Beloit team and will get into the practice for the Illinois and Purdue games with renewed vigor. This victory was the best thing that possibly could have happened for the purple warriors, as it will give them confidence for their coming battles.

The players came through the game in good shape. Capt. August suffered a bruised shoulder, but aside from a few minor hurts the eleven will be in condition to take up hard work today. Beloit was not aggressive enough to make injuries possible, and its tackling was light.

Coaches Johnson and Connor were more than pleased with the showing. Both were of the opinion that with hard work Purdue can be defeated and Illinois held to a low score. Connor, the line coach, was not entirely satisfied with the work of the line and has mapped out some hard practice for the forwards. He claimed they charged too high and were not aggressive enough. He is determined to instill a fighting spirit into the big fellows and make the purple line as strong as any in the west.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 25.—Yale football prospects brightened tonight when Frank Hinkey, twice captain and Yale's greatest end rush, arrived from Kansas, where he has been mining. He was summoned because Yale's three star ends, Capt. Burch, Kilpatrick and Logan, are crippled, and Haines, Naedele and Mersereau will be turned over to him to develop.

THE UNIVERSITY ENGLISH CLUB.

Nine New Members Added to Organization This Year.

The English club had a very successful meeting Saturday evening at the home of Miss Louise Pound, 1632 L street. Prof. H. B. Alexander, who was the founder of the club, read a verse-drama and a number of short pieces. A story by Keene Aoord, another old-time member, was read, and an amusing musical composition by D. N. Lehmer, another of the founders of the club, was sung by Mrs. Alexander. The author's introduction and the latter number were read by Miss Pound. Mrs. Alexander also sang one of her own compositions.

New members added to the club this fall are: Edith Robbins, Constance Syford, Cella Harris, Harry Huse, Grace Ryan, Eleanor Barbour, Jessie Beghtol, Isabel Wolfe, Maxon Sprague.

SEND THEIR CONGRATULATIONS.

Bender and "Bummy" Booth Heard From Over Minnesota Game.

Johnnie Bender and Former Coach "Bummy" Booth have both sent their congratulations to Nebraska on the great game played by the Cornhuskers at Minnesota. The letters from the two men follow:

"Spokane, Wash., Oct. 18.
 "Dear 'Doc':—Congratulations. Eat up the rest. Good work.
 "TWISTER."

"New York, Oct. 19, 1908.
 "Earl Eager, University of Nebraska, Lincoln, Neb.
 "My Dear Earl:—I am advised of the happy results of the Nebraska-Minnesota game on Saturday last and congratulate you and everybody concerned. My interest is always keen in what Nebraska does and is doing.
 "With best personal regards, I am,
 "As ever,
 "WALTER C. BOOTH."

NEBRASKA-AMES GAME SONGS.

Manager Eager Wants Some for Use at Omaha.

Manager Eager wants to secure two or three good songs to be sung at the Ames game in Omaha November 7. All contributions should be mailed to the Daily Nebraskan. The following song was handed to the Nebraskan yesterday:

That Aggie Ames.
 (Tune of "My Mary Ooch.")
 When that Aggie Ames,
 She play the Foot-Ball game
 Down at Deltz's Park
 'Twill break her heart.
 She run like-a-dis,
 And she like-a-dat;
 She make-a such-a charge,
 Without-a movin' a yard.
 That's funny style—
 All the boys yell out like that—
 "Look out there, you break-a-your back!"
 When that Aggie Ames
 She play the Foot-Ball game.

THREE GREAT GAMES SATURDAY.

Walter Eckersall Gives Short Review of the Contests.

Three of the greatest games in football annals were played last Saturday in the east. Never in the history of the college game have six great teams struggled on the same day for supremacy without definite result in any of the contests. The battles were among the hardest fought ever seen on the gridiron, and it will take some time for the players to recover from the battering.

The Pennsylvania-Indian game probably was the best of the three. These old rivals struggled for seventy minutes in the fiercest combat of recent years. Before the game Penn ruled the favorite, but this did not dampen the spirits of the redmen, for they went at their adversaries with that old Indian pluck and determination, rushing the Quakers off their feet most of the time, and several times dangerously threatening the goal only to lose the ball on a fumble or poor try at goal.

As was the case in recent years the Indians did not get the jump on their opponents, for the Quakers scored early in the game by a fierce attack directed at the tackles. Their defense also was strong. The Indians, not to be dismayed, came back in the second period, tied up the score, and came close to winning the battle several times. Had Thorpe, the great place kicker, been in any kind of form he would have made at least one of his attempts, but the big half back had been in the hospital several days before the game and was not in shape to play, much less make field goals against a team of the caliber of Pennsylvania.

The game showed that the western teams, Michigan and Minnesota, which meet Pennsylvania and the Indiana, respectively, later in the season, must make gigantic strides to entertain hope of beating the easterners. Both teams showed wonderful defensive qualities and neither eleven could make ground consistently. The offense was mostly old football, with a little mixture of the new game, but the old plays off the tackles were the strong ones for both teams.

The Harvard-Navy game was another hard fought battle. Both elevens were handicapped by the weather conditions, but the navy showed up the better in handling the wet and slippery ball, as their score was the direct result of two cleverly executed forward passes, while the crimson scored by old football. Annapolis showed unlooked for strength and because of their showing in the game is made the favorite over the army in their battle on November 28.

The Princeton-Syracuse game was the other tie game. The Tigers had the advantage, although outweighed, and came close to scoring several times. The New Yorkers never threatened their goal and Princeton seemed content to try to gain by simple formations and did not show its hand at all.—Walter H. Eckersall in Chicago Tribune.

250 MISSOURI STUDENTS STRIKE.

They Demand the Reinstatement of Eight Upper Classmen.

Students of Westminster College, to the number of 250, are striking for the reinstatement of eight upper classmen who are expelled as the result of a hazing episode.

The men were expelled for trying to prevent the "freshies" from attending a reception. Two of the first-year men drew revolvers and held their assailants at bay.

The reinstatement of the upper classmen is demanded by the whole school, and the students have threatened to leave in a body if their demands are denied.

University of Minnesota politicians who compose the Taft club are rather backward about defending their views. The Bryan Republican club a few days ago issued a challenge to them for a debate on the issues of the campaign but as yet the Taft men have not responded. A debate between the two clubs would arouse a great deal of interest in university political circles, and the announcement of acceptance of the challenge is eagerly waited for.
