 Yesterday a college paper known as the "National College Republican" appeared on the university campus. The paper consists of eight pages is published as a campaign document by the National Republican College League of Chicago. The paper appears in the form of a regular daily paper and its columns are devoted to furthering the interests of the republican candidates.

The freshman hop committee which was appointed by the class president, R. E. Gerspacher, is as follows: Stuart Bell, master of ceremonies; Fred Tighe, chairman; G. Flack, G. Coates, R. Swanson, R. Brown, Mr. Coderman, J. Farley, Miss Birkener, Miss Stombaugh, Miss Hammond, Beate Gould, Bessie Husband and Fay Brininger.

A mass meeting was held at 10 o'clock yesterday morning by all three classes of the Law school for the purpose of arousing enthusiasm among students of that department in favor of obtaining a special department for the Law school in this year's Cornhusker. Editor-in-Chief W. A. Robertson called the meeting to order and introduced Carl Peterson, the managing editor for the Law department. Dean Costigan, Dr. Maxey and Mr. Baker also spoke and urged that the Cornhusker be given loyal support.

John Baptist, or Maunhanner Murgudestah Cheeneegaayaaan, a native Armenian, will speak at the Y. W. C. A. vesper services on Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the University Temple theatre. J. Baptist as he is known in this country, served for three years as an assistant to the court photographer to the sultan of Turkey, but was finally forced to leave that country because of some remarks he made regarding the existing conditions in Armenia. Since that time he has been in America educating himself and working among the Armenians of this country. J. Baptist will take for his subject on Sunday "The American Flag and Its Power for Christ." All women of the city are cordially invited to attend this service.

ILLINOIS PUSH-BALL CONTEST.
 Rules for Inter-Society Fracas Have Been Announced.
 The two honorary senior societies at the University of Illinois—Phoenix and Shield and Trident—have completed plans for the push-ball contest. The contest will be by far the most interesting one ever held between Illinois classes. The following rules are to govern:
 Rule 1—The contest shall take place Thursday, Oct. 29, on Illinois field at 3:15 p. m.
 Rule 2—The two senior societies above named shall have immediate control and all contestants shall be subject to the ruling of any member of either society during the contest.
 Rule 3—The rush shall be in the nature of a push-ball contest.
 Rule 4—(a) The ball shall be a regulation push ball; (b) the ball shall be placed in the center of the football field; (c) the contestants shall be behind their respective goals in readiness for the contest at 3:05 p. m.; (d) the goals shall be chosen before the contest by the captains of the two sides; (e) the time shall be divided into two halves of 20 minutes each and an intermission of 10 minutes; (f) in case the ball is forced out of bounds the contest shall cease on the crack of pistol and the ball shall be placed in the center of the field directly opposite the point where it went out. The two sides shall line up on their respective sides ten yards from the ball and on crack of pistol the contest shall be renewed; (g) after each goal the ball shall be put in play in the center of the field as at the beginning of the contest.
 Rule 5—(a) Contestants of one side may not unbind contestants of opposite side (b) there shall be no cutting of bonds and any contestant having in his possession any instruments for such purpose shall be disqualified.
 Rule 6—(a) Forcing the ball over the opponent's goal line shall constitute five points; (b) the side scoring the most points in the time limit shall be declared the winners.
 Rule 7—In case of a tie the ball shall be placed in the center of the field as at the beginning and the contest shall continue until one side has scored.
