PENNSYLVANIA PAYS NO ATTENTION TO MICHIGAN PROTESTS.

MICHIGAN LOSES ITS FULLBACK

Father of Watkins Refuses to Allow His Son to Play in the Big Game at Ann Arbor Saturday.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 11.—Five thousand Pennsylvania students and sympathizers cheered the Penn football team today as it departed for Ann Arbor, Mich., where it will meet the Michigan football team on Saturday.

Penn will ignore the numerous protests from Detroit and Ann Arbor and will play Capt. Hollenbeck and Draper, the big tackle.

The standing of both of these players has been questioned semi-officially by Michigan, but the Quaker college does not believe that either man is ineligible.

Michigan.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 10.—The satisfaction caused by the improvement of the varsity during the last few weeks received a severe jolt this afternoon in the battle with the scrubs. In a scrimmage of forty-five minutes the reserves rolled up 24 points to 12 made by the first team.

The coaches are reticent regarding the defeat of the regulars, but it is reported that the working of Pennsylvania formations by the scrubs caused the varsity's embarrassment. Benbrook and Casey were the principal offenders in allowing the scrubs gains. Yost said tonight the scrubs showed up stronger than ever before, and it looks to him like an even break this afternoon.

It was in the first part of play that the scrubs scored easily. Later the varsity line stiffened, allowing no gains. On the offensive the old standard was maintained.

Another setback received today was the final refusal of Mr. Watkins, father of the varsity fullback, to allow his son's participation in the game. For this reason Davison will be retained at full and Ranney at right end. The men played to Yost's satisfaction in the new positions.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 11.—Poor physical condition on the part of the maroons may turn the tide of battle against the Midway team in Saturday's Cornell-Chicago game at Marshall field, according to Coach A. A. Stag. The coach's latest "gloom" was caused yesterday by the injury of Elliott, the maroon left guard, and the indisposition of three other members of the team.

Elliott, who was slated to appear at left guard against the Ithacans, sprained his right shoulder in making a vicious tackle at a member of the freshman team in defensive scrimmage. It was thought he had broken his collar bone, but Dr. Raycroft reported after an examination that no bones had been fractured. The lineman, however, will be laid up for the rest of the week, and is not expected to recover in time for the game.

The other members of the hospital squad were Captain Steffen, Page and Schommer. Steffen's kicking leg failed to improve, while the maroon ends both showed up with incipient cases of "grippe." While the trio of regulars will be in the game, Stag believes their work will be slowed up considerably by their poor shape.

Cornell.

ITHACA, N. Y., Nov. 11.—Dripping with water and covered with mud from head to foot, the Cornell varsity and scrubs scrimmaged for thirty-five minutes out of a three-hour practice this afternoon under the worst conditions of the year.

The team played snappy ball, however, and the new plays were run well. The scrubs fought stubbornly and they knew the varsity plays, but the heavy attack of the back field coupled with the newly inspired lines was altogether too much for them. Captain Walder crashed through for one touchdown, while Mowe broke loose and got a clear field on a new formation for the second.

The line was drilled an hour, while the ends were given careful instructions in defensive formations designed to break up Chicago's open play. It was learned today that Coach Larkin was the man who coached the Carlisle Indian ends to break up Chicago's offense in the Indian game last year, and the Cornell men took heart at this news.

There will be no changes in the line-up against Chicago. Caldwell, Hoffman and Sherer were in the game today, but they are being carefully groomed for the contest with the maroons. The line, however, was regular.

Notre Dame.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Nov. 11.—Dolan returned from Richmond today without Capt. Miller, bringing back word that the captain's arm is in such bad shape that he will be unable to appear in Friday's contest with Wabash. Lynch also will be out because of an injury to his eye. McDonald is the third cripple, the speedy back having strained the muscles in his left leg above the knee in scrimmage this afternoon. Paine has quit the team. The result of the scrimmage was a blank score. Collins, Sullivan and Philbrook showed remarkable form in the line for the seconds and they were placed on the regular team in the signal practice that followed. The Marquette game has been scheduled for Milwaukee on Thanksgiving day.

Purdue.

LAFAYETTE, Ind., Nov. 11.—"Get Sinnock" is the war cry at Purdue. The football men were put through a vigorous workout this afternoon. Coach Speik expressed satisfaction at the manner in which the varsity went through the signals and later put up a fierce game against the scrubs. Purdue fears Sinnock and every man will be instructed to keep his eyes on the Illinois back next Saturday. Wyant, who was hurt at Northwestern, will be out of the game. Spencer will replace him. Rochford and Sparks will play on Saturday. Coach Speik will use a new set of plays against Illinois.

Princeton.

PRINCETON, N. J., Nov. 11.—A horde of coaches watched the tigers get their fill of strenuous work today. Among their number were Captain John Dewitt, '03; Captain Walter Foulke, '05; Bill Church, '07, and Philip King, '03. The two twenty-minute scrimmages were desperately fought, and for the first time this season the varsity showed scoring power, piling up five touchdowns on the scrubs. The offense was worked continually.

The first team kept possession of the ball in spite of the strong scrub eleven, which opposed it. On the scrub were Eddie Hart, the freshman star, and McCrohan, the big full back, who was relegated to the scrub from the varsity yesterday. The latter played a good defensive game, but the varsity backs and a great many were tried out were unusually nimble in picking their openings.

Bard and Pfeiffer made several long runs. The former was a quarter back for one period and at half back the other. He gave a fine exhibition of open field running and like the other backfield candidates has an excellent chance to get in against Yale. With the exception of the backfield, the team is selected. Tigbott and Read rested up today, Cunningham, Dawson, Pfeiffer, Bard, Flengenspann and Coxie doing all the backfield play.

A LECTURE ON VENETIAN ART.

Dr. Powers Concludes His Series in Temple With Good Talk.

Dr. Powers gave the last of his series of lectures at the Temple last night, taking as his subject "Venetian Art." In introduction he reviewed, briefly, its history. Early Venetian art, he said, was confined to panel paintings, whose flat figures against a golden background expressed, not beauty and character of facial expression, but rather the beauty of gorgeous coloring. During the early Renaissance the flatness gradually disappeared, and the figures became more human, though gorgeousness of color and magic use of light and shadow, still predominated.

John Bellini, Titian's teacher, was the first Venetian artist to put the breath of life into his figures. He was the painter of Madonnas as expressing, in their quiet, beautiful faces, the spiritual elements of Christianity. Giorgione, a fellow pupil with Titian under John Bellini, but later his hated rival, alone of all Venetian artists had that profound, sympathetic love of nature which makes his landscapes pulse with life, and stamp them as immortal.

Titian, his contemporary, showed, especially in his earlier work, the influence of both John Bellini and Giorgione, though his Madonnas express not so much a spiritual as a strong, majestic, splendid type of worldly womanhood, and his landscapes, though beautiful, are somewhat conventional and subordinate always to human figures.

Titian excelled, however, in portraiture. He was probably the greatest painter of men's faces that the world has ever produced. As different artists invariably see in their models something of their own personality; be it the man as scholar, as priest, as artisan—so Titian saw always in man that predominating element of his own being—the master. Whether state official or personal friend, Titian's portraits always reveal man, the master.

Dr. Powers is a scholarly man with a complete and extended knowledge of his subject, and the ability to present it in an interesting and comprehensive manner. It is only to be regretted that so few of the students look advantage of this opportunity to hear him.

TRYOUTS ARE HELD

SOPHOMORES HAVE GOOD REPRESENTATION FOR THE GAMES.

CLEVER BOXERS AND WRESTLERS

A List of the Rules Which Have Been Adopted by the Committee to Govern the "Olympic" Contests on Saturday.

A rousing mass meeting of the sophomores has been called for Friday night at 5 o'clock at Memorial hall. The object of the meeting is to arouse enthusiasm in the interclass games between the freshmen and the sophs at Antelope park Saturday morning at 9 o'clock. Speeches will be made by members of the class and the representatives of the boxing and wrestling matches have been announced.

Tryouts Held.

Preliminary tryouts for the sophomores were held last night at Memorial hall. In the cross-country or Marathon race there were eight entries, the men finishing in the order named: Meulick, Ashbury, Cussack, Dinsmore and Drake. These men will compose the sophomore team. A large number have entered the boxing and wrestling matches and some very good work was pulled off. Weaverling boxed Reed, Sadlick boxed Knapp, and Mathewson had a go with Anderson. Neither the boxing nor wrestling preliminaries were completed and will be held again today and tomorrow. The tug-of-war team is captained by Albert Poole and comprises such huskies as Collins, Sturmer, Elliott, Hascall, Sadlick, Knapp and Tindall. The indications are that nearly every sophomore will be in the line-up for the battle royal.

Rules Adopted.

The following is a brief summary of the rules adopted by the committee from both classes. The "Olympics" shall be held at Antelope park on November 14. The management of the games is in the hands of the upper classmen, who will appoint committees to look after the matter. The sophomores are to wear a scarlet band on their ankle and the freshmen a white band. The order of events follows, the first one being called at 9 o'clock:

1. Lightweight boxing and wrestling.
2. Finish of Marathon race.
3. Middle-weight boxing and wrestling.
4. Tug of war.
5. Heavy-weight boxing and wrestling.
6. "Battle royal."

In scoring, the "battle royal" will count 35 points, the tug-of-war 15, the Marathon 10, 5, 3 and 1; each class in the boxing and wrestling 5 points.

In boxing very heavy gloves (12 ounce) are to be used, so no one can be seriously hurt. Wrestling will be catch-as-catch-can, three bouts of seven minutes each. The Marathon race starts at Fairview with the finish at the park, a distance of three miles, the course to be announced later. Four places will count. In the tug of war there will be ten men on a side and a five minute pull.

The officials are as follows: Read referee—D. F. McDonald. Umpires—W. W. Walsh and H. O. Perry.

Timekeeper—Dr. Condra. Scorers—H. O. Bell and F. O. Wheelock.

Announcer—S. P. Dobbs. Judges of boxing—"A. N. G." Cole and Jack Best.

Judge of wrestling—George Pinneo. Fifteen linemen and ten guards of juniors and seniors for each side during the battle royal.

Meet Tonight.

Tonight in Dr. Condra's office the final meeting of the committees from all of the classes will be held. The question of the eligibility of the freshman laws is still giving some trouble. Final action will be taken tonight.

Utah agricultural college has instituted student control with marked success. Once a week the chapel hour is given over to the student body for business meetings.

This year Harvard will give a degree of Master of Business Administration.
