FEARS KANSAS SPIES

IOWA HEARS THAT ITS TEAM IS WATCHED BY JAYHAWKERS.

STUDENTS KEEP KEEN WATCH

In Case Any Sleuths Are Caught They
Will Be Given Bath in Chilly
Waters of the Iowa
River.

IOWA CITY, Ia., Nov. 18.—Receiving a tip in the shape of a telegram from friendly parties, whose identity will not be revealed, the Iowa athletic management has been warned that two University of Kansas students were in Iowa City this week in disguise to watch the secret practice on Iowa field.

Coach Catlin has organized relays of students to guard the points of vantage surrounding the field, and upon the appearance of any parties unknown immediately to seize the men and hold them until proof was shown that they were not from Kansas.

In case any sleuths from the rival institution are found, the Iowa river and its chilly waters will form the means for punishing them.

Careful watch by a number of university students will be maintained this week, so that the formations, changes in the style of play, etc., will be kept safely from the southern camp.

Iowa's eleven, completely rearranged and with considerable new material in its make-up, started practice with plenty of snap and ginger tonight. Coach Catlin read the "riot act" with a vengeance to a half dozen of the men whose work Saturday was especially off color, and one rumor was circulated that two members of the 'varsity, who have been secretly breaking training rules, would not appear on the Iowa gridiron again this season.

Wisconsin.

MADISON, Wis., Nov. 18.—The Wisconsin 'varsity players showed up well in their defensive work today. Try as they might, the strong freshman backs, consisting of Captain Anderson, Wilkinson and Hammersley, could not gain consistently through the 'varsity line, and after an hour's scrimmage work the score stood six to a clean slate for the 'varsity.

The offensive work of the badgers was satisfactory to the coaches, who smiled when they saw the 'varsity roll up six counts against Davidson's youngsters. Both Cunningham, right half back, and Moll, quarter back, were used in calling signals and both displayed commendable headwork. Butch Boyle was back in his position at left tackle. It is a significant fact that all of the touchdowns but two were made on the forward pass.

At the conclusion of the scrimmage "Keckle" Moll went back and tried a number of drop kicks from the twenty-five-yard line. He succeeded in getting the ball between the posts seven times out of twelve trials. The 'varsity line held well, the freshmen being able to block but one kick.

It is probable that Sentaor La Follette will be one of the speakers at the mass meeting to be held Thursday evening to arouse enthusiasm for the game.

Backers of the Chicago team have sent considerable money here with the request that it be put up at even money or 5 to 4 on the maroons. Wisconsin backers are asking for odds of 2 to 1. It is believed that most of the wagers will be laid at odds of at least 2 to 1.

Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 18.—One more gridiron invention for Coach A. Alonzo Stagg's string of football discoveries. The maroon director's last and what may prove his most effective achievement of the season is a brand new and unique plan of defense designed to nip Wisconsin's forward passes in the bud.

The new defense, which the maroon players predict will turn the tide at Madison Saturday, when the maroons and badgers meet to decide the western championship, was exploited in masterly fashion by the Midway regulars in a long defensive scrimmage against the freshmen yesterday at Marshall field. It proved effective in stopping practically all of the fancy passes and open plays attempted by the "freshie" stars.

The nature of Stagg's defense is just now the most zealously guarded secret in the maroon camp, but the rooters have been vouchsafed the information that something startling and impressive is in the air.

Stagg has based his pre-Wisconsin calculations all along on the fact that Wisconsin and Chicago will play much the same kind of game—that both will rely on the forward pass and inside kick for the great bulk of the ground-gaining.

"If we are to win that game Saturday we have got to have a defense to stop forward passes," said Stagg yesterday. "Well, we have something of the sort, and our chances probably will depend on how well we work it at Madison. The defense went fairly well today, but we are going to have another long scrimmage tomorrow. Heavy scrimmage at this stage of the season may be risky, but it is too essential to pass up."

Coach Stagg will superintend the last hard practice of the season this afternoon at Marshall field.

Yale.

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 17.—The reorganization of the Yale eleven for the Harvard game of Saturday was taken up by Head Coach Bigelow and for an hour the regulars were sent through a signal drill in what is close to the playing order likely against the crimson. Bigelow lined up his men as follows: Left end, Logan; left tackle, Hobbs; left guard, Andrus; center, Riddle; right guard, Goebel; right tackle, Brides; right end, Captain Burch; quarter back, Corey; left half back, Philbin; right half back, Wheaton; full back, Cox.

In two places this is probably not the same as will be sent against Harvard, and a third is doubtful. Kilpatrick is almost certain to start the game at left end, and to play part of the first half. Daly, instead of Wheaton, is probably first choice for right half back at the start, as the coaches favor keeping Wheaton for a drop kick which may be necessary to decide the game.

Corey was given the preference at quarter back to any, but he and Ford Johnson will be given a trial in the position in the scrimmaging which has been ordered tomorrow and Thursday, and it is just about a toss up which of the pair will start the game.

Harvard.

CAMBRIDGE, Mass., Nov. 17.—The Harvard football team of 1908 this afternoon had its last practice on the Stadium, and 100 students who assembled during the open portion of the practice made one of the most enthusiastic demonstrations ever seen at Harvard. The first half of the drill was absolutely secret. All the 'varsity players were on the field in uniform, and Captain Burr's arm was unbandaged for the first time since he injured it nearly a month ago.

Bob Kernan joined the coaching staff today to remain with the team until after the Yale game Saturday. The team will leave at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon for Farmington, Conn. Thursday it will go to New Haven for practice on Yale field, then returning to Farmington, where it will remain until Saturday morning, when it will go to New Haven.

The following thirty-one players will make up the Harvard squad that will be taken to New Haven: G. Browne, R. Brown, Burr, Corbett, Crowley, Cutler, Cutting, Dunlop, Fish, Forscheimer, Galatt, Gray, Graydon, Hadden, Harding, Hoar, Houston, Kennard, Leslie, Long, McKay, Maguire, Nourse, Pope, Robinson, Smith, Sprague, West, White, Withington and Verwiebe.

Missouri Alpha chapter of the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity is to be re-established at the university. The local Zeta Chi fraternity has been notified by the executive council of Phi Kappa Psi of the granting to them of a charter. The installation will take place early in December.

All students should see that they have their correct address and telephone number on the registrar's list not later than Friday. This will enable the Y. W. and Y. M. to get out a complete and correct student directory.
