Tilfrey Reynolds, a former university student, is very sick with typhoid fever at the home of his parents in this city. He has been managing a ranch in southern Canada for over a year. He came to Lincoln a few weeks ago to attend the wedding of his brother and contracted the disease soon after his arrival.

Upon complaint of W. Griffen a warrant was sworn out in the practice court of the college of law Monday charging a freshman law student, Paul Topping, with the offense of calling the deputy sheriff of the court certain names during a verbal altercation between the two parties. The case was brought before Justice of Peace H. E.
 Aylesworth and a fine of 50 cents and costs was imposed upon Topping.

ALUMNI ARRANGES A BANQUET.
 Professor Fossler Will Be Present
 With a Seattle Club.

SEATTLE Wash., Dec. 4.—The Editor of the Daily Nebraskan: "I enjoy the Nebraskan more than ever. I am mighty glad to see it improving in every way. It shows more for the Nebraska spirit. My heart goes out to the school far away though I may be from the familiar haunts.
 "The Alumni association here is planning a big banquet to be given at the New Washington hotel at which we will have the honor of Professor Fossler's presence. The date is December 17.
 "By the way, I would like to have you correct the error concerning me in the paper several weeks ago. I am in a better town. I am in a better Y. M. C. A. Now you may wonder.
 You had me reported as religious work director of the Portland association. I am the membership secretary of the Seattle Young Men's Christian Association. The work is growing better every day. The longer that I am in the work the better I like it.

A communication in the Exonian of Phillips Exeter objects to the idea of limiting the ability of one man to hold office. Plans aiming to set such a limit have been adopted in various eastern schools.

DINNER BIG SUCCESS

of reminiscences, recalling events wherein some trait of the character was strikingly portrayed.

Many Events Held.

The dinner last night was the close of a series of events in honor of Dr.
 Andrews. Beginning on Monday evening with a dinner at the Lincoln hotel given by Chancellor Andrews to the board of regents, the last two days have been busy ones for Dr.
 Andrews. On Tuesday morning special exercises were held at convocation and an exceptionally large crowd attended. The dinner last evening given by the members of the faculty was an exceedingly appropriate close for these affairs.

The board of regents will hold several informal meetings to discuss a successor for Chancellor Andrews, taking final action at the regular December meeting in Omaha next week during the corn show.
