ILLINI MAY PROTEST

SCHOMMER LIKELY TO HAVE TROUBLE IN BASKETBALL.

BE NO MINNESOTA-IOWA GAME

Hawkeyes Refuse to Meet Gophers in Minneapolis and Negotiations for Contest Are Practically at an End.

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., Dec. 9.—"Long John" Schommer, the maroon basketball star, who was mentioned as coach for the Illinois quad, may be protested by Illinois if he is played on the Chicago five.

The Illini, noting the protest of Wisconsin regarding the all around athlete, also found that he played basketball during the first six months he attended Chicago, and it is believed that this will bar him from competition, as he has competed three years on the floor. It is held that the conference ruling last June did not allow him to compete four years in a sport recognized as a major one by the conference.

"Pom" Stanock, Illinois' wonderful little quarterback, and Lyon Gardner, former football captain of the Illini, teammates for three years in many a hard fought battle are now foes—that is, political foes—as candidates for the presidency of the senior class.

ILLINOIS.

URBANA, Ill., Dec. 8.—A net profit of $3,504 from the football season is reported by the University of Illinois Athletic association, which in addition received $2,760 from athletic association memberships and other sources. The biggest receipts from a football game were from the Chicago contest, which gave Illinois $4,787.20. In view of the exceptional record of the eleven, Coach Hall was voted a bonus of $400 in addition to his regular salary as head coach, and Assistant Coach Lindgren a bonus of $200.

IOWA.

IOWA CITY, Iowa, Dec. 9.—No game will be played by Iowa with Minnesota next fall and negotiations have been practically ended, as the gophers insist that the game be played at Minneapolis. Manager Mark Catlin, in returning from his father's ranch in Wisconsin, had an interview with Dr. Williams which led to the opening of correspondence on a game.

COLUMBIA.

NEW YORK, Dec. 9.—All uncertainty due to the shortage of funds having been dispelled Columbia's crew candidates began the season's training today. The start of training is late this year, but Coach Rice feels hopeful of whipping his men into condition in time. Last year's varsity has been weakened by the loss of only one man, Snevily, who has been graduated.

WISCONSIN.

MADISON, Wis., Dec. 9.—Some question has arisen whether Jack Wilce is really captain-elect of the Wisconsin football team.

Jimmie Dean was not present at the election, and it is claimed his proxy was misused by another athlete. That Osthoff might have been elected had Dean been present is believed by some. A new election may be held on Saturday, when all the members will meet to have their picture taken. Wilce had nothing to do with the alleged misused proxy.

The past football season will net the athletic association $11,000. Reports just received from the Minnesota game show Wisconsin received $6,817, which is more than the badger share from the maroon game. Athletic Director Hutchins has been authorized by the athletic council to arrange an aquatic meet at Madison. Negotiations will be opened at once with the maroons.

AMHERST.

AMHERST, Mass., Dec. 9.—Alfred L. Atwood, '10, of Norwood, Mass., was elected captain of the Amherst football team for next season tonight. He has played fullback on the Amherst team for the last three seasons, and is one of the most reliable and consistent players in the line-up. He prepared for Amherst at the Norwood high school, where he played football three years.

Law Hop and the Debate.

The committee in charge of the freshman law hop urges everyone interested in debate to attend the Nebraska-Illinois debate Friday evening.

But anyone not interested in debate need not necessarily spend the evening in their cheerless rooms. The law hop offers a pleasant diversion after a hard week's study. The management has spared no expense in providing for this dance. The hall, music, programs and refreshments are the best that can be secured for the money. The last three—music, program and refreshments—are just as good or better than the kind served up at more expensive dances.

SENIOR LAWS ON A STRIKE.

Embryo Attorneys Declare They Won't Stand for Pneumonia.

Senior law students at Washington have gone on strike. No more of the "pneumonia factory," they say, and until heat is installed in the auditorium, vacation is in vogue.

The war cry has been sent among the law embryos in the following petition:

"We, the undersigned, realizing the dangers to health resulting from the chill and gaseous atmosphere of the class rooms in the new auditorium building, and already on the verge of nervous prostration, and physical collapse from the inhalation of mephitic gaseous odors, emanating from the non-caloric producing gas stoves, and many of us affected with headaches and nausea produced in the manner aforesaid, and at divers times nearly asphyxiated in the close confines of the class room, whose windows had to be closed to exclude the pneumonia breeding germs brought in on the chill morning breeze;

"Hereby resolve to vote a protracted holiday, or vacation, to continue until suitable and effective apparatuses are installed in the said auditorium."

CHINESE ARE TO STUDY HERE.

Several Orientals To Be Educated in This Country.

According to the Associated Press a party of young Chinese students from patrician families will soon be registered at the University of Washington, being the advance guard of an annual delegation who are to be educated in America at the expense of their government. Registrar H. T. Condon and other university authorities have not yet received verifications of the report.

One week ago Tang Shao Yi, a distinguished Chinaman, with one of the most brilliant retinues ever sent to a foreign nation by the Chinese government, arrived at San Francisco en route to Washington, D. C., where he goes to convey the gratitude of his government for the remittance of the Boxer indemnity.

With this diplomat, the press advices say, came members of the royal family, eminent statesmen of the empire, and seventeen students seeking admission to American institutions of learning. The students are to be divided, the telegram states, between the Universities of New York and Washington.

A student's club has been organized at Pennsylvania. The club building contains a reading room, bowling alley, pool and billiard parlor, lunch room and co-operative book store. The membership is open to all students and professors, the membership fee being $10 a year.

Yale students lost $100,000 on the Yale-Harvard game this year. They lost on a single kick by a St. Louis boy. Missouri has always stood at the head of the list in raising kicking animals. Her nules are unsurpassed—Missouri Independent.

Lord Northcliffe, owner of several English newspapers and magazines, says the American style of football is out of date. He says it is the old Rugby discarded years ago in England, and that it is a game of weight and no science.

Professor Starr, of Chicago, says the American government is lavishing millions on so-called improvements in the Philippines, while the poor, heavily taxed Filipinos are starving.
