 Stagg Gets Young Man From Kansas
 City to Enter Chicago Next
 Month—Has Record of 11
 Feet, 3 Inches.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Dec. 10.—Next spring the University of Michigan probably will add rowing to its list of athletic sports. This "bug" is germinated through the damming of the Huron river, affording the stretch of smooth water for training. Already plans for a clubhouse have been drawn by Architect Lorch, negotiations have been begun for shells and other necessary paraphernalia, and lines are out for a coach. The matter will be submitted to the board of regents at its next meeting.

CHICAGO, Dec. 10.—A new pole vaulting star will enter the University of Chicago next month. He is Vincent Andrus of the Kansas City manual training school. He won the championship at the Missouri valley interscholastic meet with a record of 11 feet 3 inches to his event. He is also a fast high hurdler.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 10.—Inter-collegiate football will be resumed at Swarthmore college next fall. This agreement was reached at a joint meeting of the committees, alumni, faculty and board of managers this afternoon. Immediate steps will be taken to arrange a schedule confined to eight games.

NOTRE DAME, Ind., Dec. 10.—Manager Wood has arranged two home games for the local five to be played this week. Marion club of Indianapolis comes here tomorrow night and Rochester college team Saturday night.

INDIANOLA, Iowa, Dec. 10.—Simpson college will have a new gymnasium, according to indications shown by the number of subscriptions made by students, faculty, alumni and townspeople.

Coach Cochems of St. Louis university says he will give up heavy teams and depend entirely on speed next year.

TO BE SUCCESSFUL, GO MAD.

Chicago Man Alleges Insanity as Cause of Success.

A mild form of insanity was given as a recipe for success in life by the Rev. Frank Crane in his address at the University of Chicago. Music and all kinds of high art were declared classed as kinds of insanity by the speaker.

"To be truly successful in life, you must go insane on some one topic," he said. "Concentration of mind on any one subject is what is scientifically termed as insanity. You can be a fairly successful business man or a politician by being sane, but you cannot really achieve success unless you devote yourself to one thing to the exclusion of others, or in other words, go temporarily mad."

REGENTS ACT TODAY
 action on the recommendation of the chancellor and the athletic board until the proposed plan is made plain to all members of the university.
 "We believe:
 "First—That athletics in their nature are something which should be controlled by the students and yet be subject to faculty regulation.
 Ought To Be Heard.
 "Second—That the proposed change should be presented to the student body before final action is taken on it by the board of regents.
 "Third—That the centralizing of the control under one man, as a director of athletics, would not be for the best interests of the university sports as a whole.
 "Fourth—That the new method has been carefully worked out and secretly planned by faculty members of the athletic board without the consent or knowledge of the student members of that body; and that the recommendation has been 'railroaded' through contrary to the wishes of the student representatives."
 Indiana, Ohio and Illinois will debate in the latter part of March, the Indiana negative team coming here. The question is, "Resolved, That congress should immediately provide for the strengthening of the navy."

"Paul, Elijah, Hosea and many other Biblical characters, were on many occasions declared insane, and perhaps they were. But this is no reflection on their characters. It simply meant that they devoted themselves to religion and neglected everything else. In the same way you can call every famous painter, every famous musician, and every famous poet, mad. In fact, genius is no more or less than madness.
 I once heard the celebrated Blind Tom play the piano and I have never since heard a musical selection so beautifully and soulfully given. And it is generally known that Blind Tom was a blank idiot.
 "The question can be resolved into a mathematical proposition, thus: As sanity is to madness, so is enthusiasm to so-called respectability. And the man who becomes the greatest man is the one with the most enthusiasm.
 "I do not doubt that all of you have great ambition. I have no use for a boy who in the depths of his heart does not aspire to become president of the United States or foreman of the grand jury on Judgment Day. The best advice I can give you on how to fight, to strive, for your goal is to concentrate yourself on one kind of activity, or in other words, go mad."
 H. R. Cross, right tackle, has been elected captain of the Iowa team.
