FIRST GAME TONIGHT

BASKET-BALL TEAM WILL MEET COTNER FIVE.

GOOD CONTEST IS ANTICIPATED

Tonight's Meeting With the Cotner Aggregation is Expected to Exhibit the Strength of the Team.

This evening marks the beginning of the Cornhusker basket-ball schedule for the season of 1908-1909. The university team will line up against the five from Cotner university in the Armory at 8 o'clock.

Although it is early in the season and the teams have not yet perfected their team work, yet a fast game is expected and the athletes from Bethany Heights are hopeful of holding the varsity to a low score, if not defeating them.

Mr. Stevens, the Cotner coach, says that his team has been working hard for several weeks and that they are in remarkably good form for so early in the season and under the circumstances he thinks that they ought to show up well against their Cornhusker opponents. In the matter of practice this fall the Cotner players have a distinct advantage over the varsity men—they have been working out ever since early in the fall under his direction and in the matter of team work they are believed to be farther advanced than the Cornhuskers.

Individual Work.

The Nebraska players, on the other hand, will be compelled to depend largely upon their individual ability tonight. The work so far this fall has been largely along the lines of developing speed and calculated to bring out the individual strength of the men so that the better players might be discovered before the weeding-out process began and the drill in team work and signal practice started.

The squad is larger than ever before and in the opinion of many contains a larger percentage of faster players than at any time in recent years. The guards are expected to do good individual work in tonight's contest, and even if the varsity five is unable to run up a large score on the Cotner players, they hope to prevent them from shooting very many baskets against the Cornhuskers.

Fast Team.

When interviewed last evening, Dr.
Clapp, who is coaching the Cornhusker five, gave it out as his opinion that the material with which he is now working contains more fast players than he has had together at one time for several years. He expressed himself as being very enthusiastic over the prospects for the season and hopes to be able to develop a championship team.

As far as tonight's contest goes, Dr.
Clapp anticipates that his pupils will

NO MINNESOTA-IOWA GAME.

Negotiations for Contest Next Fall Dropped by Iowans.

No game will be played by Iowa with Minnesota next fall and negotiations have been practically ended as the Gophers insist that the game be played at Minneapolis. Manager Mark Catlin in returning from his father's ranch in Wisconsin had an interview with Dr. Williams which led to the opening of correspondence on a game next fall. However, the Minnesota authorities soon declared that the game should be played at Minneapolis and the Iowa athletic board immediately ended negotiations, as Iowa will have enough games away from Iowa City next year.—Daily have no difficulty in holding their own, notwithstanding the fact that they are handicapped in the matter of team work.

It is reported that the Cotner five went to Manhattan, Kansas, last week, where they met the team from the Manhattan agricultural college and were defeated by a score of 54 to 29.
If this report is correct, all the bear stories about the strong team which they have at Cotner and their chance for defeating the Cornhuskers tonight will not be given much credence.

Personnel of Team.

The personnel of the Cornhusker team is not yet decided and the purpose of tonight's game is to aid in determining this matter. So far there have been all kinds of promising candidates and the work which they put up in this contest, for Dr. Clapp expects many of them out tonight, will be a large stride toward the determination of the permanent make-up of the team. It is not to be inferred from this, however, that the make-up of the team will, after tonight's game or even at any time during the season, be finally settled upon. Promising candidates will not be relegated to the bench until they have had ample and thorough opportunity to show what they can do and have failed.

The line-up of the team during a part of tonight's game, at least, will be as follows: Center, Petrashek; forwards, Wood, Captain Walsh and Hutchison; guards, Bell and Perry.

The contest takes place in the armory at 8:15, and the admission will be 25 cents. Holders of students' season tickets will, of course, be admitted.

The seniors at Indiana have white felt hats with Yale blue bands.

The meetings of the fraternity have been arranged for the year. The next meeting will occur on Friday evening, January 15, at which time Dr. Ward will speak on the "Life and Work of Darwin," and Professor Emerson on the "Inheritance of Color in Plants and Animals."

About Charter Day three meetings will be held at which Professor Webster of Clark university will speak.
On April 2 Dr. Avery will speak on the "Testing and Properties of Asphalt" and Professor Chadburn on the "Testing of Paving Material." It is thought that this meeting will be of special interest to every property owner in Lincoln.
