 A beautiful poster advertising the sophomore hop for January 9 was placed on the bulletin board in the main passageway of University hall yesterday morning. It bears the drawing of a girl's head and shoulders which are exquisitely done in water colors and crayon. It is the portrait of an American type of beauty that is more striking than the Gibson girl or Fluffy Ruffles type.

Christmas Shopping

time is at hand. In doing your Christmas buying it will pay you to patronize Nebraskan Advertisers. These men advertise in the Nebraskan because they want student trade. They want student trade because they have goods intended especially for students and suited to student pocket books. The men who do not advertise in the Nebraskan are indifferent as to whether they have your trade or not. Tell them you saw their ad in the Nebraskan.
