The senior committee on inter-class debating held a meeting yesterday and discussed plans. A joint meeting of all class committees will be held the latter part of the week.

M. L. Corey, '07, was elected county will take up the duties of his office today. He was on the campus yesterday and left for Clay Center last night.

The meeting of the Sigma Xi fraternity which was announced for Friday, January 11, will be held Friday, January 15. The confusion of dates arose through a mistake in the printing.

Some inclination has been shown by students to make "dates" for dances far ahead of time, on account of the unfavorable weather. The advance sale of tickets for the new two dances on Friday and Saturday nights has not been large enough to startle anybody.

more hop has exceeded even the expectations of the members of the committee and promises are bright for the financial success of the dance. Many of the students have engaged tickets and the chairman may find it necessary to place a limit.

All candidates for the university teachers' certificate in February are requested to inform the secretary of the committee on teachers' certificates, G. W. Lucky, at once. His office lent sum of fifty cents to the treasury.

The unions hold their second informal at fraternity hall, on Friday night. It is a $1.25 dance.

At the meeting of the non-fraternity men Tuesday morning a committee was appointed to confer with a similar committee to be appointed from the inter-frat athletic board, the two committees to have charge of the two indoor meets which will be held early in February. The following committee was appointed by Dr. Clapp from the non-fraternity men: J. C. Knode, Jim Harvey, E. F. Guidinger, F. E. Dinsmore and John Alexander.

At a meeting of the freshman law class yesterday morning, a fifty-cent assessment was passed on the ninety members of the class to meet the deficit of $22.15 reported by the hop committee and to pay for the space in the Cornhusker. A committee will be appointed by President Carney to arrange for the space in the Cornhusker. The laws are planning to have a group picture of the whole class taken, similar to the one last year.

The society of Sigma Xi is planning to hold a Darwin memorial meeting on Friday evening of next week, at which papers will be read by Dr. Ward on Darwin and his work and by Prof.
Emerson on some studies of his own in "Heredity." In the minneograph announcement of the membership of the organization sent out just before the Christmas holidays, the date of the meeting was by typographical error given as January 11, instead of 15.

J. B. Harvey, as chairman; F. A.
Dinsmore, E. F. Guidinger, J. C. Knode and J. M. Alexander comprise the committee which was named by Prof.
Clapp to have charge of the barb team in the meet with the fraternity men on Charter day. These men will act as an executive committee and make appointments of sub-committees to look after various details of the work.
Practice will begin in a few days as the preliminary tryouts will probably be held some time before the thirtieth of January. On that night the interfraternity meet is held.
