Practice for the barb-frat meet to be held on charter day started yesterday in the university gym, a number getting out for work in the sprints. The date of the frat meet, first set on January 30 will probably be changed, since a basket-ball game is also scheduled at the gymnasium on the same evening.

A. E. Henry, '98, secretary of the University of Nebraska club at Kansas City, writes that the former Nebraskans held a banquet at the Sexton hotel in Kansas City Tuesday night. "This dinner" he volunteers, "was well attended and the enthusiasm manifested bodes well for this, the second year, of our organization."

The first steps toward the formation of a junior men's society were taken yesterday when the following committee was announced. This committee will draw up complete plans for the society and these plans will then go before the class for approval: Jesse Clarke, chairman; Clinton Dye, William Byerts, Glenn Le Roy, Ollie Manson.

With nearly 130 couples present at the sophomore hop, at the Lincoln hotel Saturday night, the hoodoo which has been pursuing university dances since the beginning of the year was broken. In spite of the crowd, the dance went off in splendid style and the master of ceremonies, A. A. Bald, is receiving considerable commendation for the hop. A. A. Bald and Miss Mecla Stout led the grand march. Walt's orchestra furnished the music. Mr. and Mrs. Weiss of Hebron and Congressman Maguire chaperoned the dance.

The Graduate club will meet in the banquet hall of the Temple at 6 p. m., Friday, January 15. The gathering will be an informal affair at which a banquet will be served. Speeches will be delivered by Dean Sherman and Chancellor Avery. Informal responses will be made by members of the faculty, state representatives and senators. Graduate faculty and graduate student members who wish plates are requested to notify Miss Howell, secretary, or Professor Condra, president, by noon Friday. The price of plates will be 30 cents.

Carl Peterson went to Shickley yesterday to attend the funeral of Nelson, the senior law student who died from an attack of typhoid fever at his ranch in New Mexico. Towards the beginning of the Christmas holidays Nelson was called south to take charge of a ripening tomato crop and while there was taken with the fever. He grew rapidly worse and died last week. Saturday the senior law class held a meeting and elected Mr. Peterson as their representative at the funeral and also voted to send a floral offering. Besides a wife, Nelson left a small child.

Throughout school days, college days, business or professional career the Conklin Pen will serve you faithfully and make writing a pleasure. You don't have to coax it or fuss with it to get it to write. Because of its wonderful feed principle, ink responds instantly at the first stroke and maintains an even, steady flow to the last dot. Another great advantage of owning a

CONKLIN'S SELF-FILLING PEN
 —you're never without ink. No matter where you may be—in your room, lecture hall, at the post office, telegraph office or hotel, or on the train—all you have to do when your Conklin Pen begins to run dry is to dip it in any ink-well, press the Crescent-Filler and your pen instantly fills itself and is ready to write. The same simple movement also cleans it. No mussy dropper—no spilling of ink—no interruption to your train of thought. Handsome catalog direct from the manufacturers, The Conklin Pen Co., 310 Manhattan Bldg., Toledo, Ohio, on request.
