CHICAGO TRACK DATES
 DIRECTOR STAGG ANNOUNCES
 THE SCHEDULE FOR 1909.

BIG MEETS FOR THE ATHLETES
 WISCONSIN, ILLINOIS AND PUR-DUE ARE ON LIST.

Besides These Events Pennsylvania Games and Western Inter-collegiate Conference Will Keep Maroons Busy.

CHICAGO, Jan. 22.—Director Stagg of the University of Chicago yesterday announced the dates for the spring track and field meets. Contests with Wisconsin, Illinois and Purdue are scheduled, and besides these the Pennsylvania games and western inter-collegiate conference will fill up the remaining places in the maroon athletes' program.

Wisconsin will be taken on for a dual meeting at Madison May 8, and one week later the Midway stars will be called upon to defend their laurels against Illinois at Marshall field. Purdue will come to Chicago on the following Saturday.

In addition to the dual meets the annual tryouts to select a relay team and men for the individual events at the big "Penn" carnival which will be held on April 17, will occupy the attention of Stagg's runners and jumpers.

Compose Outdoor Schedule.

The above dates practically compose the maroon outdoor schedule, although it is probable that a contest with some other of the western schools may be arranged for on either May 1 or May 29, the two open dates.
 The date and place of holding the conference events has not yet been decided upon, though it is probable that June 5 will be selected, inasmuch as the rule has been to hold it on the first Saturday in June. Although Northwestern may put in a bid for the inter-collegiate games, it is likely that Marshall field will again be the scene of the athletes' activity.

Director Stagg has chosen June 12 as the date for the annual University of Chicago inter-scholastic, which has become famous among the "prep" athletes throughout the west as the biggest event in their athletic date book.

Extra work in all of the libraries has resulted the last two weeks because of the "cramming" of the students for examinations next week. It requires almost double the time to place the books on the shelves in the evening as ordinarily.

Graduate students of the university and those registering in the teachers college are permitted to register without numbers until February 6. Nearly 1,000 numbers have been given out to students for registering for work for the second semester.

Volume 3 of the Nebraska geological survey, by George Everett Condra, has just been issued. It is probably the most comprehensive book of its kind ever published, containing in interesting detail a carefully written report on the sand gravel resources of this state.

Do you expect to be out of school during the second semester? We have good positions for three Christian people; two young men and one young Instructions have been received for the rigid enforcement of the university rule that students shall not sit on the steps of the library building.

 During the last two weeks, so much bench work has taken place in the library hall that the rigid enforcement of the rule became necessary and the janitor declares that Cupid's obstruction of the steps must cease.

Delta Sigma Rho, the honorary debating fraternity organized yesterday by electing officers. It is an organization found in all of the eastern schools and having for its special purpose the art of debating. Membership is limited to the speaking members of the inter-collegiate debating teams.
 Thus six men are taken into the organization each year. The six who were elected to membership this year are: J. E. Bednar, J. T. Votava, J. L.
 Rice, S. P. Dobbs, Ross W. Bates and Dean Driscoll.

"Life in Japan" was the subject of an address Thursday evening by W.
 Wattles at the university Temple. A large crowd greeted him. The manners, customs, history, and religion of the yellow people of the Far East were entertainingly described by the speaker. He expressed himself as being prouder than ever of the United States when he returned. While the Japs are an enterprising race, and have a country of remarkable natural resources, yet, "as for me, give me a country where the people kiss and cuss, where God reigns and the people rule."

Charles Borg, '06, addressed the class in political science 41, last evening on the Panama Canal. Mr. Borg returned from the canal zone last August and was able to give some interesting and instructive first hand details of conditions in Panama. He described the country as to size and climate, noting especially the heavy rainfall, which averages 140 inches per year. He spoke of the dense brush and jungle covering practically all of the country without the city limits, which is infested with innumerable wildcats and deer. Centipedes, scorpions and tarantulas are very thick, crawling into clothing, beds and everywhere.

NICKNAMES OF THE COLLEGES

What Some People Prefer to Call Big Institutions.

Some of the colleges have a great dislike to the way in which they are referred to commonly in connection with athletics. For instance, Wesleyan men don't like to be called "the Methodists," as they appear sometimes.

At the naval academy there is a strong prejudice against being called "Annapolis." The navy men are not particularly fond of "midshipmen." They believe the proper name for their institution is "the navy."

Although not so strongly opposed to it, students at the Pennsylvania do not like the full title "University of Pennsylvania" as well as plain "Pennsylvania." "Penn" is preferred to either.

Columbia has a great dislike for the name of "Columbians" for their representatives in athletics or other public appearances. At the University of Chicago there is a dislike of the name "Chicago University," which sometimes is applied.

"Maroons" for Chicago men, "gophers" for Minnesota, "badgers" for Wisconsin students, "cornhuskers" for Nebraska, "wolverines" for Michigan, "Illini" for the men at Illinois—all are names that are popular at those colleges and are used by the men there in speaking of their own teams. Indeed to a man unacquainted with nicknames the average statement regarding a conference college is puzzling because of the almost entire lack of straightout names.—Missourian.

A committee of the senior class at Indiana has advised that the editor of the Arbutus be required to give bond for $1,000 instead of for $500 as heretofore; that he get the first $350 made on the book, and that the rest of the profits be divided, the manager getting 40 per cent and the class 60 per cent. The manager and class have yet to agree to the plan.
