HOLD TWO MEETINGS

JUNIOR PRESIDENT CALLS SEC-OND MEETING IMMEDIATELY.

ELECT REST OF CLASS OFFICERS

DISCUSS POSITION OF JUNIOR LAWS IN THE CLASS.

Rumor That Vern Bates Would Try for Freshman Presidency is Found to Contain
 No Truth.

With two class meetings held within the same half hour and with an excited and enthusiastic, though small crowd, present, the juniors yesterday morning succeeded in electing the rest of their class officers. The old question as to whether second year law students have the right to vote in the straight junior class meeting came up for discussion and for a time matters became very warm.

Miss Beulah Jennings was chosen vice-president and Miss Janette Lawrence was made secretary. The office of treasurer and the responsibilities that go with the care of vast funds fell to the lot of Mr. George M. Wallace. It was declared by the president of the class that the constitution provided for a class attorney and Mr. Ralph Mosely was chosen to fill the office during the present session. Mr. W. M. Byerts was made sergeant-at-arms.

Nominates Junior Law.

Unfortunately for the harmony of the meeting, Mr. Waldo was nominated for class attorney, and as Mr.
 Waldo is a second year law student who has already taken his regular academic degree, the question was at once raised as to whether or not he had the right to hold the office. The law students came to the support of their representative and contended that, as Mr. Waldo would graduate in 1910, he was entitled to a vote with the class of 1910. A motion was made that the second year law students be permitted to vote with the class of 1910, but the president ruled the motion out of order on the ground that the class did not have the right to decide the matter.

An attempt was then made to have a committee of five members appointed to investigate the matter, but while this was being considered a motion to adjourn was made and carried. The president at once called a new meeting to order but the question of the standing of the junior law students was left just where it was before and the discussion was not continued.

There was some talk of referring the matter to some university authority for a ruling on the question, but no definite action was taken. The general sentiment of the class seemed to be that as the junior laws had always voted with the class in the past it was only justice that that right should not now be taken away.

Bates Not in It.

A slight flurry was caused in freshman politics yesterday by a rumor to the effect that Vern Bates was a fourth entrant in the presidential race.
 Bates is a Lincoln high school graduate and the other candidates were quick to see the strength that he might poll. Bates, however, is not a candidate and the rumor was founded on false assumptions.

Outside of this scare, there was nothing new in the freshman situation. Beck, Thomas and Landers are still in the running and the three-cornered race as yet shows no signs of who the winner will be.

Each of the inter-class debating teams has selected a member of the varsity debating team to coach them for the coming inter-class debates. J.
 D. Bedner has been selected to coach the senior team. R. A. Van Oradel has the freshman team in charge and S.
 P. Dobbs is the coach for the sophomore team.

The cadet band is practicing regularly for the concert which they will give Friday evening, April 2d, in the Temple theater. One week from today the band will give a program at the weekly vesper service. This concert is to be given free this year for the first time. Heretofore a small admission has been charged, but this year the band has received good financial support and therefore the concert is free to those who wish to attend.

 by several layers of thin, specially prepared fabric on the
