 Cabinet and Finance Committee Play a Hot Game.
 On Saturday afternoon at the state farm diamond the Y. M. C. A. cabinet played the members of the finance committee a game of baseball in answer to a challenge offered some time ago.

The contest began with the cabinet at bat. In this inning Coryell, the twirler for the financiers, bewildered his opponents, holding them down to a single tally. In the second half the financiers batted Mahood of the cabinet without apparent difficulty and brought three men safely in for scores. In several innings following Coryell held the cabinet sluggers down, letting in but eight runs while in the box.

In the second inning Mahood was succeeded in the box by Plasters who proved easy, letting in 13 scores. He was followed by Tate who pitched a consistent game in the remaining five innings and won it for the cabinet. Drake was batted out of the box after allowing 15 tallies in the first half of the seventh.

The financiers succeeded in tallying but one score in the last half of the seventh and the game was called.
