By winning the championship debate from the Blair high school, Wahoo high school won the championship of the East Central division of the Nebraska High School Debating league and their team will therefore debate in Lincoln, March 14.

It is highly probable that the final examination for members of the freshman law class will be held a week earlier than was formerly planned on. This change is made necessary by the alteration of the dates for the cadet encampment. It is the wish of a large majority of the members of this class to have the examinations commence May 25th.

The committee appointed by President Hill of the freshman law class met last evening and discussed plans for a smoker or a social function of some nature for the members of the freshman law class. This committee will report this morning at 10 o'clock at a class meeting, as will the committee on class yell, song and constitution.

Robert Thompson, ex-1907, was united in marriage yesterday to Miss Mary Minor, yesterday at the St. Theresa cathedral in the presence of a few invited friends. R. A. Van Orsdel, 1906, law 1910, was best man, and Miss Florence Ridell, 1910, was bridesmaid. While in school Mr. Thompson was a member of the Alpha Theta Chi fraternity, and the bride was a member of the Kappa Kappa Gamma sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Thompson departed last evening for Omaha.

LAW PRIZES ARE ANNOUNCED

Freshmen Laws Get Valuable Books for Scholarship.
 The three prizes awarded to members of the first year law class for excellence in scholarship have been selected by Dean Costigan. The first prize, which was won by Thomas R. P. Stocker, by a narrow margin, will consist of four volumes of the "World's Best Orations." Joseph T. Votava, who was second in scholarship, is to receive a copy of Martiqui's "Spirit of the Law." The third prize, which was won by H. C. Robertson, consists of a copy of John Marshall's "Decisions on Constitutional Law." These prizes are presented to the three men ranking highest in scholarship in the freshman law class, by the former dean of the College of Law, Dr. Roscoe Pound, now head of the College of Law at Northwestern university.

STRING QUARTET POSTPONED

Miss Zumwinkle to Appear at Convocation Today.
 Contrary to the first announcement that the string quartet would appear at convocation this morning, Miss Louise Zumwinkle, assisted by the university chorus, will be at convocation. According to present plans the string quartet will be scheduled for one week later. Miss Zumwinkle is from the University School of Music.
 The program which has been announced is as follows:
 The Miller's Wooling—Fanning.
 University Chorus.
 Venetian Barcarolle—Loshetzky.
 Dame of the Goblins—Dvorak.
 Etude F Minor—Liszt.
 Miss Zumwinkle.
 The Tone Pictures from "The Tower of Babel"—Rubenstein.
 Song of the Sons of Schem.
 Song of the Sons of Ham.
 Song of the Sons of Japhet.
 University Chorus.

The Wisconsin Spectator suspended publication this year because both the editor and the business manager withdrew from school at the same time. New officers have been elected now and publication of the magazine will be resumed May 1.
