SCHEDULES ARE OUT

EXAMINATION PERIODS MADE PUBLIC YESTERDAY.

SOME CHANGES ANNOUNCED

Several Classes Changed in Time or Place—Arrangements Made for Cadets Whose Camp Conflicts With Tests.

Schedules for the final examinations of the second semester were distributed yesterday. The schedules follow the general plan of past examination periods the tests beginning Friday, May 28, and closing Thursday, June 3, with the exception of the college of law. In that department the tests begin Wednesday, May 26, and finish Friday, June 4.

In general all large classes which could be possibly so arranged are scheduled for Friday of this week. Among these are included English literature II, English literature IV, mechanical engineering II, civil engineering VI, chemistry B, chemistry II, rhetoric II, botany II, and home economics II. Other classes are generally scheduled according to the hours and days on which they are regularly held.

Some Changes.

Late yesterday afternoon Registrar Harrison had found it necessary to make only a few changes in the announced program. Section 10 of rhetoric II will meet in Library hall, 305 at 1:15 Friday, instead of in the chemistry lecture room as scheduled. Section 9 of the same class will meet in chemistry hall instead of in the library building.

The examination for second year laws in evidence will be held at 8:00 a. m., next Friday instead of a week from Friday. The examination in property II will come on the latter date.

Cadets Conflict.

According to the published schedule the only classes having examinations after the cadets leave for camp on Wednesday noon are 5 o'clock classes, 7 p. m. classes, and 1 p. m. classes. The only conflicts likely to arise are with 1 o'clock classes and these will be few in number. When cadets are enrolled in these classes they will be allowed to make special arrangements with the instructor in charge as to special examinations.

TRIUMPH ON TRACK.

knocked it off. Hamel then prepared for his final leap while a group of loyal rooters encouraged him to clear the bar. He was visibly nervous and keyed to the highest strain his nerves could stand as he toed the line to make a run for the bar. He moved off slowly with the deepest silence prevailing. As he approached the bar he hurled himself as he had not been able to do before that afternoon and just barely missed the bar making the jump and giving Nebraska its opportunity to win the meet, for Johnson on his third trial struck the bar and lost out on second place. The Nebraska relay team of George, Reed, Amberson, and Burke easily defeated the Jayhawker quartet in the mile relay and gave the meet to Nebraska by one point.

Good Work By All.

The character of the work of both teams in nearly all the events was of the sort to keep the interest of the round of the games. In the 100 yard dash, the first event pulled off, Kansas sprung its first surprise of the meet, showing the fast Haddock who was the best sprinter on the track. He ran away from both Wildman and Campbell in the dash, reaching the tape a full eight feet ahead of Wildman who won second. The time was 0:10 1-5. Haddock's work here made it seem certain that he would make the other runners trailers in the 220 yard dash. He did, too. When that event was run off he sped away from Campbell and Wildman at the start, doing the distance in 0:22 1-5, which is Nebraska's record time. Campbell followed Haddock to the tape.

Captain McDonald was the feature in the hurdles. In both the low and high sticks he took first place. The high barriers he took in 0:16. Russell of Nebraska, was second in this race. Johnson, who ran best for Kansas, had a pretty stride but he toppled over many hurdles and finished five feet in the rear of Campbell.

Fast Time in Low Sticks.

Captain McDonald was pushed to much faster work in the low sticks by Newbold of Kansas, who placed himself for second honors. For nearly 220 yards the Nebraska captain and his Kansas rival ran even. But before the last two hurdles were taken McDonald was in the lead and by the finish at the tape he was ten feet the winner. His time was 0:26, the record time he made last season, but which he lowered in the Minnesota meet to 0:25 4-5.

Amberson and George did some fine work for Nebraska in the half mile run. This event was won by Amberson in 2:02 1-5. George started out with a fast burst of speed which he maintained for 600 yards. He then fell back and Amberson, who had been grouped with Badger and Bergen, the two Kansas runners, took the lead and sped in the rest of the run several yards ahead of Badger, who was given second place.

A Slam for Kansas.

Kansas secured a slam in the mile run, Cooley being first and Clark, second. Burke in the 440 yard dash made the distance in 0:51 3-5 seconds. His running in this race was a feature of the day. Haddock and Martindale were the Kansas runners and Reed was the second entry for Nebraska. Reed led for over 330 yards. Then Burke, who was grouped with the Kansas runners, pushed out of the bunch, and overtaking Reed, assumed the lead he maintained to the finish. Haddock overtook Reed in the last fifty yards and ran even with him for twenty yards, finally getting a small distance ahead and finishing second.

Gable smashed a Nebraska record in the two mile, making it in 10:23. Thompson of Kansas was second, being several yards behind the Nebraskan. Asbury also ran for Nebraska.

Chaloupka Not in It.

In the weight events S. Collins secured first place in the hammer throw and discus heave. He lost first in the shot put. Wood of Kansas staking this event with a throw of 37 feet, 1 1-2 inches. Collins made but 36 feet, 6 inches. Chaloupka, who has been doing good work with this weight was not allowed to enter and C. Collins was made the second entry for Nebraska. C. Collins has not trained with the Cornhuskers this spring, while Big Bill has and it is believed the latter would have been able to have hurled the shot to a greater distance than the Kansas winner did. Chaloupka ought to have been good for a place in the discus, too, had he been entered.

In the hammer throw, S. Collins made a mark of 149 feet, 11 inches. He took the discus throw with a fling of 110 feet, 8 1-2 inches. Wood of Kansas was second in this event.

In the broad jump Kansas made another slam. Smith and Martindale tied for first at 21 feet, 4 inches. Perry and Wildman both tried this jump for Nebraska, but fell below 20 feet.

Russel and Johnson, of Kansas tied, for first place in the pole vault. The Cornhusker was in fine form for this event and probably could have gone over the bar at 11 feet 1 inch, where they were tied if he had been permitted to take three more trials. The bar rested at 10 feet, 10 inches when the two jumpers cleared it. It was raised to 11 feet, 1 inch, where they failed. Russel wished to try it again but Kansas would not consent.

In the mile relay race George, Reed, Amberson, and Burke, ran for Nebraska. Newbold, Hamilton, Bergen, and Martindale essayed to do the trick for the visitors. The time was remarkably fast, being 3:28 2-5 and the visitors never stood any show of winning the race.

GRADUATE SCHOOL GETS GIFT.

Large Sums Given to Princeton by Cincinnati Man.

It is rumored that a gift of five hundred thousand dollars has been made to Princeton university by Mr. William Cooper Proctor, '83, of the firm of Proctor & Gamble, of Cincinnati, to carry out plans for the enlargement of the graduate school.

The principal conditions under which this offer holds are that an equal amount be raised by May 1, 1910, and that the new group of buildings be not placed within the present grounds of Prospect.

Undoubtedly there is a large measure of truth in the rumor. Dean West was unable to make a statement several days ago, but others in authority who have been consulted, while unwilling to place upon it the official stamp of certainty, are still loth to deny it, probably because it will be officially announced after the next meeting of the trustees.

WILL GIVE TALK FROM CANOE.

Y. M. C. A. to Have Novel Stunt at the University of Iowa.

A new and novel feature will be instituted at the university of Iowa on next Sunday morning by the Y. M. C. A. About sixty men of the Bible study department will take canoes and go up the river probably as far as Coralville and float down. The plan as outlined by the leaders is, that in starting down the boats will be lashed together and will thus all be within hearing distance of a central boat. Reverend Jones has consented to accompany the men and to give a talk as the boats float down.

This is the first time in the history of the university of Iowa that anything of the kind has been accomplished. In the east it is a common occurrence for the Y. M. C. A. to hold meetings of this kind on the water and in the south it is often done. At Lake Geneva also, meetings are held in boats.

TO RESTRICT NEWS GATHERERS.

University of Minnesota Wishes to Suppress Scandal.

Certain critics about the University of Minnesota seem to be anxious to have a censor appointed for university news. E. B. Johnson, editor of the Alumni Weekly, is reported as saying:

"In my mind there is need for such an officer at the university to prevent sensational accounts of events at the institution appearing in the daily papers. As it is, we cannot prevent student reporters from writing whatever they may see.

"I would be willing to take the position, provided it should be considered necessary to appoint a censor, and would then personally look up news items and furnish them to the daily papers. I will have time next year that I could devote to that work."
