

OLIVER THEATRE
 ALL NEXT WEEK
 COMMENCING TUESDAY, OCT. 5,
 Matinee Wednesday and Saturday.
ENID MAY JACKSON
 JESS B. FULTON
 and
The Fulton Stock Co.
 Evening 25c and 15c, Matinee 25c and 10c.

L. J. Herzog
 The University Man's Tailor
 The Finest Work Done and Prices Right
 Call at Our New Store
 1230 O St. Lincoln

TYPEWRITERS
 All makes rented with stand $3 per Month. Bargains in Rebuilt Machines
Lincoln Typewriter Exchange
 Auto 1155. Bell 1181. 122 No. 11th

Underwood Typewriter Co.
 TYPEWRITERS SOLD AND RENTED
 187 No. 13th. Bell 848. Auto 2585

Quality Counts THAT'S WHY FRANKLIN'S ICE CREAM IS SO POPULAR
 We make a specialty of fancy creams, sherbets, Ices and punch for Frat & Sorority parties. Whipping Cream always on hand. Bell 205. Auto 3131. 1316 N St.

UNIVERSITY JEWELER & OPTICIAN
C. A. Tucker
 JEWELER
S. S. Shean
 OPTICIAN
 1123 O STREET, YELLOW FRONT
 Your Patronage Solicited

SEE OUR WOOLENS
Elliott Bros.
 TAILORS
 142 SOUTH TWELFTH

He makes good punch and serves first class light refreshments
U-All-No-Tommy
 Find him at Herpolsheimer's

BELMONT
 ARA-NOTCH PAT. AUG. 3 '08
 In the "BELMONT" the "ARA-NOTCH" does away with the buttonhole that bothers.
ARROW COLLARS
 15c. each, 2 for 25c. Cluett, Peabody & Co. ARROW CUFFS, 25c. a pair

Campus Gleanings

Frey & Frey.
 Beckman Bros., High Grade Footwear. 1107 O.
 Lost—Pair gold-rimmed glasses, without bows. Return to Nebraskan office.
 Dr. J. R. Davis, Dentist, 1234 O St.
 F. C. Holtz, 1912, spent Sunday at Wahoo.
 James Coup, ex-1909, was a campus visitor Saturday.
 Tailormade Printing, Engraving and Embossing. George Bros., Printery.
 Julian Koehne of Fremont, a former student, visited in the city over Sunday.
 F. A. Niter, ex-1909, was down from Omaha to see the football game.
 Miss Loreine Hemple, 1908, who is teaching in the high school at Wilber, spent Sunday in the city. She is having a successful year at Wilber.
 George Bros., 218 So. 13th, Printers. Calling Cards, Invites and Programs.
 Students taken notice. Special rates extended to you this week. Lincoln Dancing Academy, 1124 N, third floor, Lincoln's "Select Dancing School." See display ad. 7-5t
 We have twenty university students in our "Select School" now. Hurry and join us. Lincoln Dancing Academy, 1124 N. Special rate this week. 7-5t

FULK NECKWEAR
 Largest Assortment—Newest Patterns
 1225 O Street 25 Cents to $1.50

Frey & Frey, choice flowers. 1338 O St., north side.
 C. E. Dallinger, 1812 spent the weekend at David City, Neb.
 Green's Sanitary Barber Shop. 120 N. 11th.
 Wm. Reynolds, 1909, was on the campus yesterday. He is traveling for the Home Industrial Arts Company of Valparaiso, Ind., and is just returning from the west on his way home for a short visit.
 Have your clothes pressed at Weber's Sutorium, 12th and O.
 George Lamb, James Currie, 1812, and R. W. Patterson, 1911, are Acadia pledges.
 Due-bill on an up-to-date tailor for sale at a $5 discount. See manager of Daily Nebraskan. 2-tf
 J. O. Wentworth, 1908, was a campus visitor yesterday. He is located at Council Bluffs, where he is inspector of farms for a loan company.
 Miss Fay E. Forbes, Delta Delta Delta, is permanent substitute teacher in the Nebraska City schools. She is also clerical assistant in the office of the superintendent.
 Three rooms for rent. Accommodate two gentlemen in each. All rooms face the street. $10 and $12. Inquire at 1623 K street.
 All men interested in fencing will meet in Doctor Clapp's office at 11 o'clock today. It is important that everyone be out.
 Twenty-five men have reported for the try-outs for the cross country team. Dr. Clapp expects the number to reach forty within the next two weeks.
 A brand new bicycle for sale at a bargain. Call at Nebraskan office. 2-tf
 Dr. Clapp has been very busy lately giving the football and track candidates physical examinations.
 Try a lunch at the Y. M. C. A. Spa. 13th and P Sts.
 Remember Don Cameron. He is issuing coupon books at a discount this year, and has fitted up an adjoining room with tables. 115-119 So. 12th.

Special Sale, Men's Fall Ties & Shirts

A excellent opportunity presented this week to complete your Winter Wardrobe of the needed Ties and Shirts at Special Saving.

$1.00 TIES AT 55c
 A large assortment of original and Exclusive effects in Pure Silk Knitted Cravats in stripes and crochet weaves. Also plain colors. Especially adopted for both young and old men. A silk selling regularly at $1.00. Our price..... 55c

$1.00 SHIRTS AT 79c
 An opportune sale of Fall Dress Shirts for men, representing a recent large purchase at a special price concession. Assortment consists of an excellent variety of percale and Madras Shirts, with both pleated and soft bosoms. All sizes; regular $1.00 and 79c
 $1.25 Shirts at 79c

Our Collection and present showing of fancy dress shirts is characterized by its many new style features. Materials embrace the celebrated Anderson's Scotch Madras, French Percales and Domestic Goods. Prices from $1.00 to..... $2.50

"Furnishers to Men Who Know" Rudge & Guenzel Co. "Furnishers to Men Who Know"

NOTICE TO NEW STUDENTS.
 Over two hundred letters addressed to university students lie unclaimed at Station A. Unless called for within a few days they will be returned to sender or sent to the dead letter office. Mail addressed to Station A or to the university without street address is not delivered at students' rooming house. It must be called for at the general delivery window of the postoffice in University Hall.

TERRIBLE DEATH OF STAR INDIANA GUARD
BLOOD-POISONING RESULTS FATALLY FOR DUKE TRIMBLE.
DIED AS TEAM-MATES WON GAME
 Football Coach Was Called from Watching Victorious Work of His Men on Gridiron to Deathbed of Sick Man.

While the Indiana state university football team was putting the finishing touches on its victory over DePauw late Saturday afternoon, Duke Trimble, star guard of the Indiana varsity eleven, died at the city hospital. Death resulted from blood-poisoning caused by a scratch on the foot received a few weeks ago.
 Trimble died at 4 p. m., a few minutes before the second half of the DePauw game ended. Shortly before death the veteran football man became delirious and began to rave wildly of his efforts on the gridiron. Coach James Sheldon of the Indiana eleven was called from the football field to quiet the sick man, but when he arrived Trimble was dead.
Imagined the Game.
 Trimble had been sick for two weeks from the effects of a minor scratch on his foot. Blood-poisoning was induced and he had to take to the hospital several days ago. There his condition became rapidly worse and before the game Saturday his life was practically despaired of.
 When the time came for his teammates to go on the field, Trimble's thoughts were off of the contest with the DePauw rivals. The Indiana guard had anticipated a great deal of the pleasure of the ten weeks of contest and struggle on the gridiron and it was a keen disappointment to him not to be in the first-big game of the year.
 At the time set for the contest Trimble became feverish in his demand to hear of the game. Death was already beginning to confuse the intellect of the brilliant player and he could not understand why those about him could not tell him how the game was coming.
Cried for News.
 "Where's the ball?" he cried out in a voice hoarse with pain and fever.
 "Who did they put in my place?" he asked a moment later.
 The nurse soothingly answered his questions to the best of her knowledge, but the approaching end was upon the patient and he rapidly became delirious.
 "23-6-19-56-10," he cried. "That's my signal. Where is the ball? A fumble! Oh, God, why can't they play ball. The children! 18-4-61-22. There it is. Here it comes, now it is mine. Oh, for a chance to get through that hole."

He's stumbled. By God, he's stumbled. If I can run past that end there's a clean field for a touch. Oh, where is that interference? No use, they've got me!"
 It was at this point that Coach Sheldon was called. He hurriedly left the field where his men were playing sensational ball and sped to the hospital where his star guard was raving of another game which existed only in his imagination. But when he arrived the game which Trimble had been playing against Death had ended. The opposing eleven had won.

Y. W. C. A. RECEPTION SATURDAY.
Annual Affair at Governor's Mansion Was Well Attended.
 The Young Women's Christian Association gave their annual reception to new students at the home of Governor Schallenberger Saturday evening. A large number of co-eds were present, both old and new students, and a pleasant evening was spent meeting old acquaintances and making new ones. In the course of the evening a program was given on the second floor of the governor's mansion by Miss Lillian Helm, soprano; August Nolze, violinist, and Miss Loulae Zumwinkle, pianist.

FIRST ENGLISH CLUB PROGRAM.
Regular Monthly Meetings to Be Held in the Future During School Year.
 The English club held its first meeting of the year at the home of Professor and Mrs. H. B. Alexander Saturday evening. Miss Estella Morrison gave an interesting account of the work in American literature given by Professor Mimo of the summer school of the University of Virginia. Miss Flora Bullock read an essay on "Putting Things in Books," the basis of which was a find of letters from J. G. Whittier and A. Bronson Alcott in an old volume.
 The election of officers which was announced for the first meeting was postponed until the next session. It was tentatively resolved to set the date for club meetings on the first school Saturday of each month.

PROF. FLING AT CONVOCATION.
European History Teacher Will Talk on "New England Revisited" at 11 O'clock Today.
 "New England Revisited" is the title of an address to be delivered by Professor Fling at convocation this morning. Professor Fling is at the head of the European history department and in his treatment of this subject speaks from an intimate experience with the New England life. He spent the past summer in the New England states and will draw the material for his address from his experiences while there.
 Henry Wade Rogers reports that more than two-thirds of the new law schools of the United States are now on a three-year basis.

UNIFORMS DAUSE THE PERSHING'S TROUBLE
 (Continued from page 1.)
 pressed by those in authority.
 Plans are being made, however, for alleviation of this yearly difficulty over the uniform proposition, and it is believed that by next year a scheme will be devised by which some official purveyor of uniforms can be provided for in the interest of the student body. The idea as now formulated is to have a committee, of which the chancellor and the commandant shall be members, select the official purveyor. This purveyor is to be selected after all of the firms who wish to compete have submitted bids, together with the samples of the cloth and cut of the proposed uniform, and the selection is to be made on the basis of price, quality of material being also considered. It is hoped that by this method a purveyor of uniforms can be selected and the student body derive the benefit. The matter as yet has not been officially adjusted.

REUNION OF NEBRASKANS HELD.
Former Cornhuskers Met at Madison, Wisconsin, During the Summer.
 Madison, Wisconsin, was the center of activity for a number of Nebraska graduates and ex-students during the past summer. Many old men were doing summer work at the university there. Some were engaged in business in the city, and others were just there for a short time.
 Owing to the number of Nebraska men in the city at the time, and prompted by a spirit of loyalty to the old "alma mater," a banquet of Nebraska graduates and ex-students was held at the dining hall of the Y. M. C. A. building, on Friday evening, July 30th. Professor Aylsworth and H. R. Tucker, 1899, were a self-appointed committee who took charge of the banquet and brought the Nebraska men together. Those present were: Professor and Mrs. E. A. Ross, Professor Mossler, Miss Mockridge of Lincoln, Miss Autumn Davies, 1905; Miss Susan Dinsmore, 1901; Henry Wunder, 1910; Arthur Jorgenson, 1908; Dr. W. L. Westerman, 1894; Professor Virtue; Dr. E. C. Elliott, 1895; Miss Clark; Professor J. L. Kind, 1899, and Professor and Mrs. Aylsworth, 1900. Mr. Tucker was unable to be present, being called from the city at the last moment.